DISTRICT REPRESENTATIVE

Who Can Do This Job: Any senior member, or leader. Each club should have two representatives, when possible.

Time Commitment: Approximately 10 hours of meetings (five at 1-2 hours) over the course of the year; in addition, you should be sure to be reporting back to your club meetings.

Contact your District 4-H Specialist for a rough schedule of meetings.

Description of Role: The club's District Council Representative attends all district council meetings and relays pertinent information back to the club and its members.

To Do List:

- Attend district council meetings (generally held bi-monthly).
- Provide club with a report on district happenings at club meeting.
- Represent your club at each district council meeting – voice any concerns that your club may have on district or provincial issues.
- Encourage club members, leaders, and parents to participate in district activities.
- Help find volunteers for district activities when necessary.

Optional To Do List:

- Help the nominations committee identify individuals from your club who may be helpful and interested in standing committees like Agriculture and Rural Youth Fair, come District AGM time (in September).
- Help prepare your club president to present a club report at the District AGM (in September).