(10) The Board shall hold a minimum of three meetings in each calendar year and may hold special meetings when considered necessary by the chairperson. 2012,c.4,s.4.

5. The Board
   (a) shall advise the Minister in matters relating to the suitability of the provincial apprenticeship training and certification system as a means to meet the labour market needs of the province;
   (b) may recommend to the Minister the designation of trades for apprenticeship and certification;
   (c) may, subject to the approval of the Minister, enter into agreements with any organization or government for the purpose of facilitating, providing or managing apprenticeship training; and
   (d) shall perform other functions assigned to the Board by the Minister. 2012,c.4,s.5.

6. Where the Board recommends to the Minister that a trade is appropriate for apprenticeship and the issuance of certificates of qualification, the Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, designate the trade to be a designated trade. 2012,c.4,s.6.

Trade Advisory Committee

7. (1) The Board may establish, in consultation with the Manager, a trade advisory committee for a designated trade or for two or more designated trades that are related.

   (2) The Board shall appoint at least four persons as members of a trade advisory committee, of whom
      (a) at least two persons are
         (i) trades persons with at least five years’ experience, and
         (ii) representative of the views of employees; and
      (b) at least two persons are representative of the views of employers.

   (3) A member of a trade advisory committee shall be appointed for a three-year term and may be reappointed.

   (4) The Board shall appoint a person other than a person referred to in subsection (2) as the chairperson of a trade advisory committee.

   (5) A trade advisory committee shall perform the functions assigned to the trade advisory committee by the regulations or by the Board. 2012,c.4,s.7.
Apprenticeship Plan

8. (1) The Board shall, in consultation with the appropriate trade advisory committee, if any, establish an apprenticeship plan for every designated trade.

(2) The Board shall include the following in an apprenticeship plan it establishes for a designated trade under subsection (1):

(a) the required form and contents of the apprentice agreement to be used by employers and apprentices in the designated trade;
(b) the standards for completion of the apprenticeship plan;
(c) the term of apprenticeship required under the apprenticeship plan;
(d) the tasks, activities and functions that are included in the designated trade;
(e) the minimum educational standing required to be held by an apprentice, or to be obtained by an apprentice before completion of the apprenticeship plan;
(f) the ratio of apprentices to journeypersons who may be employed by an employer in the designated trade;
(g) the requirements that must be met by an employer that proposes to employ an apprentice and the responsibilities of an employer during the term of an apprenticeship agreement;
(h) the technical training and practical training requirements that must be met by an apprentice under the apprenticeship plan and the standards for determining apprentice achievement;
(i) guidelines for the granting of credits toward the completion of the technical training and practical training requirements referred to in clause (h);
(j) the practical, written and oral examinations for
   (i) assessing the progress of an apprentice in the designated trade or a segment of the designated trade,
   (ii) assessing the successful completion of an apprenticeship under the apprenticeship plan, and
   (iii) the granting of certificates;
(k) any other matter that the Board considers to be essential to a successful apprenticeship.

(3) The Board may designate a set of tasks, activities and functions within a designated trade as

(a) a segment of the designated trade; or
(b) a specialty trade area of the designated trade.

(4) The Board may, in an apprenticeship plan established under subsection (1), adopt by reference, in whole or in part and with such changes as are considered necessary, any written standard, classification system or examination relating to a trade or occupation or to apprenticeship.

(5) The Board may, in an apprenticeship plan established under subsection (1), adopt a written standard, classification system or examination referred to in subsection (4) as amended from time to time.

(6) The Board shall
(a) maintain a complete and accurate record of the apprenticeship plans established under subsection (1);
(b) make a copy of each apprenticeship plan established under subsection (1), and a copy of each standard or classification system referred to in subsection (4), available for public inspection, free of charge, during regular business hours in the office of the Manager; and
(c) make a copy of each apprenticeship plan made under subsection (1) for a designated trade available, in print or electronically, to each apprentice in that designated trade. 2012,c.4,s.8.

Registration of Apprenticeship Agreement

9. (1) A person who wishes to obtain a certificate of qualification in a designated trade and an employer who wishes to employ the person as an apprentice to learn the designated trade shall
(a) enter into an apprenticeship agreement; and
(b) apply to the Manager, in a form approved by the Manager, for registration of the apprenticeship agreement referred to in clause (a).

(2) An apprenticeship agreement is invalid and has no effect under this Act or the regulations unless it is registered with the Manager under subsection (4).

(3) The applicants shall provide the following with an application made under clause (1)(b):
(a) a copy of the apprenticeship agreement referred to in clause (1)(a);
(b) proof satisfactory to the Manager that the applicants meet the requirements of subsection (4).

(4) The Manager shall register an apprenticeship agreement where the Manager is satisfied that
(a) the applicants have submitted an application in accordance with subsections (1) and (3);
(b) the apprenticeship agreement and the apprenticeship training to be provided under the apprenticeship agreement comply with this Act, and the apprenticeship plan for the designated trade specified in the apprenticeship agreement;
(c) the parties to the apprenticeship agreement will carry out their respective responsibilities under the agreement;
(d) the person who wishes to become an apprentice in a designated trade under the apprenticeship agreement
   (i) is at least 16 years of age, and
   (ii) has the minimum educational standing required under the apprenticeship plan for the designated trade, or will obtain that educational standing before completing the term of apprenticeship for the designated trade; and
(e) the employer under the apprenticeship agreement
   (i) meets the requirements set out in the apprenticeship plan, and
   (ii) can provide suitable practical experience in the designated trade specified in the apprenticeship agreement in accordance with the apprenticeship plan.

(5) The Manager may refuse to register an apprenticeship agreement where the Manager is not satisfied that all of the requirements described in subsection (4) are met.

(6) The Board may authorize an association or organization, whether incorporated or not, and whether or not engaged in carrying on a trade, including a trade union, an employer association or an employee association, to enter into joint training agreements with apprentices on such terms as the Board may specify. 2012,c.4,s.9.

10. (1) An apprenticeship agreement entered into by a person who is under the age of majority is binding on the person as if the person had attained the age or majority at the time the apprenticeship agreement was entered into.

   (2) Subsection (1) applies to an apprenticeship agreement notwithstanding that the apprenticeship agreement was entered into before the coming into force of this section. 2012,c.4,s.10.

Transfer of Registered Apprenticeship Agreement

11. (1) An apprentice or an employer who is a party to a registered apprenticeship agreement may apply to the Manager, in a form approved by the Manager, for the transfer of the registered apprenticeship agreement to another employer.

   (2) The Manager shall transfer a registered apprenticeship agreement to an employer specified in an application made under subsection (1) where the Manager is satisfied that
      (a) the applicant has submitted an application in accordance with subsection (1); and
(b) the employer to whom the registered apprenticeship agreement will be transferred
   (i) consents to the transfer,
   (ii) meets the requirements set out in the apprenticeship plan, and
   (iii) will carry out the responsibilities of the employer under the registered apprenticeship agreement and the apprenticeship plan.

(3) On the transfer of a registered apprenticeship agreement under subsection (2),
   (a) the employer to whom the registered apprenticeship agreement is transferred is a party to the registered apprenticeship agreement; and
   (b) the employer from whom the registered apprenticeship agreement was transferred ceases to be a party to the registered apprenticeship agreement.

(4) The Manager may refuse to transfer a registered apprenticeship agreement where the Manager is not satisfied that all of the requirements described in subsection (2) are met. 2012,c.4,s.11.

Notice of Refusal and Reasons

12. Where the Manager refuses, under subsection 9(5), to register an apprenticeship agreement, or refuses, under subsection 11(5), to transfer a registered apprenticeship agreement, the Manager shall, within seven days of the refusal, serve on each applicant
   (a) written notice of and reasons for the refusal; and
   (b) written notice of the right to appeal under subsection 16(1). 2012,c.4,s.12.

Cancellation of Registered Apprenticeship Agreement

13. (1) The Manager shall cancel the registration of a registered apprenticeship agreement if both the apprentice and the employer under the registered apprenticeship agreement request the cancellation.

   (2) The Manager may cancel the registration of a registered apprenticeship agreement if the Manager is satisfied that the apprentice or the employer under the registered apprenticeship agreement has
   (a) contravened section 21 or 22 of the Act;
   (b) failed to comply with a term or condition of the registered apprenticeship agreement; or
   (c) failed to meet the requirements of the apprenticeship plan for the designated trade specified in the registered apprenticeship agreement.
Notwithstanding subsection (2), the Manager shall not cancel the registration of a registered apprenticeship agreement by reason only that a labour dispute prevents the apprentice from working.

(4) Before cancelling the registration of a registered apprenticeship agreement under subsection (2) the Manager shall serve on the apprentice and the employer under the registered apprenticeship agreement
   (a) fourteen days’ written notice of the Manager’s intention to cancel the registration, and the reasons for the intended cancellation; and
   (b) an opportunity to respond.

(5) Where the Manager cancels the registration of a registered apprenticeship agreement under subsection (2), the Manager shall, within 14 days of the cancellation, serve on the apprentice and the employer under the registered apprenticeship agreement
   (a) written notice of and reasons for the cancellation; and
   (b) written notice of the right to appeal under subsection 16(1).

(6) A cancellation of the registration of a registered apprenticeship agreement under subsection (2) is not effective until notice of the cancellation is served on the apprentice and employer affected by it. 2012,c.4,s.13.

Certificates and Pocket Cards

14. The Manager may, on application made in accordance with the regulations and payment of the prescribed fee, issue one or more of the following to a person who meets the requirements for the issuance as set out in the regulations:
   (a) a certificate of qualification in a designated trade, and a certificate of qualification pocket card;
   (b) a certificate of achievement in a segment of a designated trade and a certificate of achievement pocket card;
   (c) a certificate of apprenticeship in a designated trade;
   (d) a pocket card in a specialty trade area of a designated trade. 2012,c.4,s.13.

Suspension or Cancellation of Certificate or Pocket Card

15. (1) The Manager may suspend or cancel a certificate or pocket card if the Manager has reasonable grounds to believe that the person holding the certificate or pocket card
   (a) obtained the certificate or pocket card by fraud or misrepresentation; or
   (b) has acted in a manner that
(i) is not consistent with good practice in the designated trade, the segment of the designated trade or the specialty trade area for which the certificate or pocket card, as the case may be, was issued, or
(ii) is detrimental or hazardous to property or public safety.

(2) Where the Manager suspends or cancels a certificate or pocket card under subsection (1), the Manager shall, within seven days of the suspension or cancellation, serve on the person holding the certificate or pocket card
(a) written notice of and reasons for the suspension or cancellation; and
(b) written notice of the right to appeal under clause 6(1)(c).

(3) Where the Manager serves notice of the suspension or cancellation of a certificate under subsection (2),
(a) the certificate and any pocket card issued in relation to the certificate is invalid; and
(b) the person holding the certificate shall, without delay, surrender the certificate and any pocket card issued in relation to the certificate, to the Manager.

(4) Where the Manager serves notice of the suspension or cancellation of a pocket card under subsection (2),
(a) the pocket card is invalid; and
(b) the person holding the pocket card shall, without delay, surrender the pocket card to the Manager.

(5) Upon the expiry of the suspension of a certificate or a pocket card, the Manager shall return any certificate or pocket card surrendered under subsection (3) or pocket card surrendered under subsection (4).

2012,c.4,s.15.

Appeal

16. (1) A person who is aggrieved by
(a) a refusal, under subsection 9(5), to register an apprenticeship agreement;
(b) a refusal, under subsection 11(5) to transfer a registered apprenticeship agreement;
(c) the cancellation, under subsection 13(2), of a registered apprenticeship agreement; or
(d) the suspension or cancellation, under subsection 15(1), of a certificate or endorsement pocket card, may appeal the refusal, suspension or cancellation to the Board.
2. An appeal pursuant to subsection (1) may be taken by filing with the chairperson of the Board a notice of appeal in written form within thirty days after being served with notice of the refusal, suspension or cancellation appealed from.

3. Where a notice of appeal is filed pursuant to subsection (1), the Board shall hear the appeal within thirty days after the notice is filed.

4. After hearing an appeal pursuant to subsection (3), the Board may confirm, vary or reverse the refusal, suspension or cancellation appealed from.

5. A decision of the Board pursuant to this section is final.

Designation of Compulsory Certified Trade

17. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations designating a designated trade as a compulsory certified trade.

Permit

18. (1) Where a designated trade is designated as a compulsory certified trade under section 17, a person who, immediately before the designation, was engaged in the designated trade, may apply to the Manager for a permit.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall be made
(a) in accordance with the regulations; and
(b) within one year of the designation of the designated trade as a compulsory certified trade.

(3) The Manager shall issue a permit in a compulsory certified trade to an applicant where the Manager is satisfied that the applicant
(a) has submitted an application in accordance with subsections (1) and (2); and
(b) meets the requirements for the permit set out in the regulations.

19. The Minister shall arrange courses of related technical instruction for the purpose of this Act and may bear the expenses, in total or in part, involved in connection with those courses.

Notices

20. (1) Any notice or other document required to be served on a person under this Act or the regulations is deemed to be sufficiently served
(a) when a copy is personally served on the person to whom it is directed;
(b) when a copy is sent by facsimile or other electronic means to the person to whom it is directed and an acknowledgement of receipt is received; or
(c) five days after a copy is sent by mail addressed to the person to whom it is directed at the last known address for that person.

(2) Where the person to be served is a corporation, service on a director, officer or recognized agent of the corporation in accordance with subsection (1) is deemed to be service on the corporation for the purposes of this Act or the regulations.

(3) Where it is impractical for any reason to serve an order in a manner referred to in subsection (2), an ex parte application may be made to a judge of the Supreme Court who may make an order for substituted service providing for such steps to be taken to bring the matter to the attention of the person to be served. 2012,c.4,s.20.

Offences

21. (1) No person shall engage in a compulsory certified trade unless the person holds a certificate of qualification, or is an apprentice, in the compulsory certified trade.

(2) No person shall employ another person in a compulsory certified trade unless the person employed holds a certificate of qualification, or is an apprentice, in the compulsory certified trade.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), a person who holds a permit in a compulsory certified trade may continue to engage in that compulsory certified trade until the person abandons the trade. 2012,c.4,s.21.

22. (1) No person shall use any title, name, abbreviation or description implying that he or she is an apprentice in a designated trade unless he or she is an apprentice in that designated trade.

(2) No person shall use any title, name, abbreviation or description implying that he or she holds a certificate of qualification in a designated trade unless he or she holds, or is deemed to hold, a certificate of qualification in that designated trade.

(3) No person shall use any title, name, abbreviation or description implying that he or she holds a certificate of achievement in a segment of a designated trade unless he or she holds, or is deemed to hold, a certificate of achievement in that segment of the designated trade.
(4) No person shall use any title, name, abbreviation or description implying that he or she holds a certificate of apprenticeship in a designated trade unless he or she holds, or is deemed to hold, a certificate of apprenticeship in that designated trade.

(5) No person shall use any title, name, abbreviation or description implying that he or she holds a certificate of proficiency in a designated trade unless he or she holds a certificate of proficiency in that designated trade.

(6) No person shall use any title, name, abbreviation or description implying that he or she holds a pocket card in respect of a specialty trade area of a designated trade unless he or she holds, or is deemed to hold, a pocket card in that specialty trade area of the designated trade.

(7) No person shall use any title, name, abbreviation or description implying that he or she holds a permit in a compulsory certified trade unless he or she holds, or is deemed to hold, a permit in that compulsory certified trade.

(8) No person shall use any title, name, abbreviation or description implying that the person holds an interprovincial standards (Red Seal) endorsement to a certificate of qualification in respect of a designated trade unless he or she holds, or is deemed to hold, an interprovincial standards (Red Seal) endorsement to a certificate of qualification in that designated trade. 2012,c.4,s.22.

23. A person who contravenes section 21 or 22 is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000. 2012,c.4,s.23.

24. (1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations
(a) respecting the procedures and requirements for an application for registration of an apprenticeship agreement or the transfer of a registered apprenticeship agreement, and the information, evidence and supporting material that must be included with an application;
(b) respecting additional requirements that must be met for the registration of an apprenticeship agreement and for the transfer or cancellation of a registered apprenticeship agreement;
(c) respecting the registration of apprentices;
(d) respecting the circumstances in which the holder of an extra-provincial certificate or endorsement may apply for a certificate or endorsement under this Act;
(e) respecting certificates and establishing additional types of certificates that may be issued;
(f) respecting endorsements, and establishing different types of endorsements that may be issued;
(g) respecting permits, and establishing different types of permits that may be issued;
(h) respecting the requirements for the issuance of each type of certificate, endorsement or permit, including the examinations to be written by an applicant for a certificate or endorsement;
(i) respecting the procedures and requirements for an application for issuance or renewal of each type of certificate or endorsement, or for the issuance of a permit, and the information, evidence and supporting material that must be included with an application;
(j) respecting the terms and conditions upon which each type of certificate, endorsement or permit may be issued;
(k) respecting the granting of credits toward a term of apprenticeship;
(l) providing for the issuing of certificates to persons from other provinces;
(m) respecting fees to be paid for examinations, the issuance, renewal or replacement of certificates, endorsements or permits, or the issuance of any document, including penalties for late payment;
(n) prescribing the additional responsibilities and duties of the Manager;
(o) respecting the functions of a trade advisory committee;
(p) respecting the establishment of joint trade advisory committees, including the membership, management and functions of joint trade advisory committees;
(q) respecting the conduct of investigations by the Manager for the purposes of ensuring compliance with this Act and the regulations, including the powers and duties of the Manager and other persons in respect of investigations;
(r) respecting the monitoring of apprenticeship training and the entry and inspection of apprenticeship training facilities by the Manager, including the powers and duties of the Manager and other persons in respect of inspections;
(s) respecting examinations for, and the issuance of, interprovincial standards (Red Seal) endorsements, and the recognition of interprovincial standards (Red Seal) endorsements issued by other provinces, under the Canadian Council of Directors of Apprenticeship Interprovincial Standards (Red Seal) Program;
(t) providing that the contravention of any specified provision of the regulations constitutes an offence and providing the penalties or range of penalties that apply in respect of such an offence;
(u) providing for any transitional matters the Lieutenant Governor in Council considers necessary or advisable to facilitate the implementation of this Act;
(v) defining any word or expression used but not defined in this Act;
(w) further defining any word or expression defined in this Act; and
(x) respecting such other matters as the Lieutenant Governor in Council considers necessary to give effect to the purposes of this Act.

(2) A regulation made under subsection (1), or any provision of a regulation made under subsection (1), may apply to a designated trade or a compulsory certified trade, to a group of designated trades or compulsory certified trades, or to all designated trades or compulsory certified trades. 2012,c.4,s.24.

Transitional

25. (1) In this section, “former regulations” means the Apprenticeship and Trades Qualification Act Regulations (EC712/95) as they read immediately before the coming into force of this section.

(2) Where
(a) immediately before the date this section comes into force, a trade advisory committee is established under subsection 14(1) of the former regulations in respect of a designated trade; and
(b) the trade referred to in clause (a) is, on the coming into force of this section, designated as a designated trade by an order made by the Minister pursuant to section 6 of the Act, the trade advisory committee referred to in clause (a) is deemed, on the commencement of the order, to have been established as a trade advisory committee in respect of the designated trade referred to in clause (b) under subsection 7(1) of this Act.

(3) Where a trade advisory committee is deemed, under subsection (2), to have been established as a trade advisory committee under subsection 7(1) of this Act,
(a) the persons who had appointments under subsection 14(2) of the former regulations as members of the trade advisory committee that were in effect immediately before the date this section comes into force, are deemed to have been appointed under subsection 7(2) as members of the trade advisory committee until such time as their appointments under the regulations would otherwise have expired, unless they sooner cease to hold office; and
(b) the person who had an appointment under subsection 14(3) of the former regulations as the independent chairperson of the trade advisory committee that was in effect immediately before the date this section comes into force is deemed to have been appointed under subsection 7(3) as the chairperson of the trade advisory committee until such time as his or her appointment under the regulations would otherwise have expired unless he or she sooner ceases to hold office.

(4) Where
(a) immediately before the date this section comes into force, an apprenticeship agreement is in effect and is registered with the Manager; and
(b) the trade specified in the apprenticeship agreement is, on the coming into force of this section, designated as a designated trade by an order made by the Minister pursuant to section 6 of the Act, the apprenticeship agreement referred to in clause (a) is deemed, on the commencement of the order, to be in effect and registered with the Manager under subsection 9(4) of this Act.

(5) Where
(a) immediately before the date this section comes into force, a plan of apprenticeship training referred to in subsection 13(1) of the former regulations for a designated trade is in effect; and
