| Notice of claim within three months, unsafe sidewalk | 45. (1) In no case shall the city be liable for damages sustained in consequence of the unsafe condition of the street or sidewalk or from a nuisance or encumbrance on the sidewalks, squares or streets of the city, unless a notice in writing of the claim for such damages be given to the chief administrative officer by the party injured within ninety days from the time when the cause of action arose. |
| General | (2) Except as provided in subsection (1), all actions against the city shall be commenced within six months next after the cause of action arises. 1994,c.6,s.45. |
| Gross misfeasance re snow removal etc. | 46. In no case unless for gross misfeasance shall the city or any person, by reason only of any bylaw of the city compelling removal of snow and ice from the sidewalks, be held liable for damages for any occurrence upon any streets, sidewalk, square or crossing, or other public place in | the city, attributable to the existence of any condition of snow, ice, sleet or rainfall or to any action of frost or to any condition resulting from change of weather or season; and no undertaking, continuance, cessation or interruption by the city of any active or enforcing measures for general safety or convenience shall in any way prejudice the city's non-liability under this section. The city is not liable for any damage caused by a decision related to the system of inspections, examinations, evaluations and investigations including a decision relating to their frequency and the manner in which they are carried out. 1994,c.6,s.46.

47. In no case unless for gross misfeasance shall the city be liable to the owners or occupiers of adjoining property for damages to the adjoining property occasioned by the grading, building up or cutting down of any street, land, alleyway or sidewalk. 1994,c.6,s.47.

Action affecting adjoining property

47.1 (1) In this section, “sewer” includes any sanitary or storm sewer, or combination of sanitary or storm sewers, drain, ditch, or watercourse that is

Definition of sewer

- (a) the property, in whole or in part, of the city; or
- (b) located within the city.

(2) The city shall not be liable for loss or damage suffered by any person by reason of the discharge or overflow of water or effluent from a sewer, unless the discharge or overflow is shown to be directly due to the negligence of the city or one of its employees. 2000,c.2,s.7.

Limitation of liability

48. The city, the mayor, any councillor and any officer or employee of the city shall not be liable for any act done in good faith or purporting to be done under the authority of this Part. 1994,c.6,s.48.

Good faith

EXPROPRIATION

49. (1) The council may, in accordance with the provisions of this Part, expropriate any land, or any interest in land in the city that it may consider expedient for a public work or other public purpose, and, in particular Expropriation for public works etc.

| Majority for expropriation resolution | 50. The expropriation of land or any interest in land shall be made only upon a resolution of the council at a regular meeting and upon a vote of two-thirds of the councillors and after notice of such resolution having been given at the last regular meeting of the council. 1994,c.6,s.50. |
| Notice of intention to expropriate | 51. The resolution referred to in section 50, shall be entitled “Notice of Intention to Expropriate” and shall set forth <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) a general description of the lands; (b) the nature of the interest intended to be expropriated; (c) an indication of the public work or other public purpose for which the interest is required; (d) a statement that it is intended that the interest be expropriated by the city upon the registration and filing in the office of the Registrar of Deeds of a legal description of the said lands and a survey plan thereof. 1994,c.6,s.51. |
| Power of entry to survey land | 52. After the passing of any resolution intending the expropriation of land or an interest in land, a person authorized by the council shall have the power to enter upon the land proposed to be expropriated and make a survey thereof. 1994,c.6,s.52. |
| Filing in registry | 53. (1) A certified copy of the resolution referred to in section 50, the survey plan and a legal description of the land, signed by a qualified land surveyor, the mayor and the chief administrative officer, with the corporate seal of the city affixed, shall be filed and registered in the office of the Registrar of Deeds and such land or interest in land, upon the filing and registration of such resolution, plan and description, shall thereupon become vested in the city for the purposes set out in the resolution. |
| Errors | (2) Where a resolution, survey plan or legal description registered pursuant to this section contains any omission, mis-statement or erroneous description, a corrected resolution, survey plan or legal description may be registered, which shall be deemed to relate back to the day the original resolution, survey plan or description was registered. |
| Failure to identify interest | (3) A resolution registered under this section is not invalid by reason only that it does not set forth the nature of the interest intended to be expropriated and, in such case, the interest intended to be expropriated includes all the interest in the land to which the resolution relates. 1994,c.6,s.53. |
| Conveyance of expropriated interest | 54. Any land or interest in land expropriated in accordance with the provisions of this Part and upon becoming vested in the city pursuant to the operation of section 53, may be conveyed, leased, assigned or | otherwise legally transferred by the city to any other person in order to better effect the intended purpose of the expropriation. 1994,c.6,s.54.

55. All buildings, structures, or erections of all types on the land so expropriated may be removed and disposed of by the city and the proceeds thereof shall belong to the city. 1994,c.6,s.55.

Buildings etc.

56. If the city fails to arrive at an agreement with the owner of any land or interest in land expropriated as to the compensation to be paid by the city, or if the owner or any parties interested in the land is or are under disability or incapable in law of entering into an agreement or is or are absent from the province, or if any doubt or dispute exists or arises either as to the ownership of the land or as to the apportionment of the compensation money among the parties interested or having or asserting any claim or interest therein, then and in any and all such cases, the council shall, by resolution, determine what amount the city considers it should pay for such land and the chief administrative officer shall mail by registered letter a copy of such resolution to the owners or other parties interested in the lands who are within the province and whose names and addresses are known to the chief administrative officer, offering such amount as stated in the resolution as compensation for the interest expropriated. 1994,c.6,s.56.

Compensation

57. If the owner or any party interested in the land fails or refuses to accept the sum so offered, within twenty days of the receipt of the offer, or, if the owner or any party interested in the land is absent from the province or is under disability, or for any reason incapable in law of entering into an agreement regarding compensation money or executing the proper discharge therefor, or, if any doubt or dispute exists or arises whether as to the ownership of the land or as to the apportionment of the compensation money among the parties interested or having or asserting any claim or interest therein, then and in any and all such cases, the amount of the compensation money, the parties to whom the same shall be payable and the allotment and disposal thereof among the parties found to be entitled thereto, shall be determined by the Supreme Court upon proceedings to be instituted by the city for that purpose. 1994,c.6,s.57.

Resolution of disputes

58. The proceedings shall be commenced by application to the Supreme Court to be signed by the mayor and chief administrative officer setting out

Application to Supreme Court

- (a) the resolution of the council for the expropriation of the land and the date thereof together with a description of the land and the date on which the resolution, survey plan and description were filed and registered in the office of the Registrar of Deeds;

(b) persons who at such date had any estate or interest in the land and the particulars of the estate or interest and any charge, lien or encumbrances to which it was subject, so far as is known;

(c) the resolution indicating the sum of money which the city is willing and ready to pay as the compensation for the land and the date thereof;

(d) any other facts material to the determination of the question involved in the proceeding and as set forth in the application. 1994,c.6,s.58.

Questions to be determined

59. The application shall be deemed and taken to be the institution of suit against the persons named therein and shall request the court to determine the proper compensation money to be paid and to make findings as to the persons entitled to compensation and the allotment of the money among those entitled. 1994,c.6,s.59.

Procedures

60. The application shall be dealt with in accordance with the rules of court and the court may determine any matters of procedure not otherwise provided for in the rules of court. 1994,c.6,s.60.

City takes free of claims and interests

61. Upon final disposition of an application by the court the city shall be free and discharged from all claims, interests, rents, charges, annuities, liens, judgments, mortgages or any other encumbrance upon the land or property or other debts or claims whatsoever. 1994,c.6,s.61.

Abandonment of expropriation by resolution

62. Where at any time before any compensation is paid in respect of land or an interest in land expropriated, the council determines that the land or interest in land is not or is no longer required by the city, it may by resolution, abandon the interest expropriated, a certified copy of such resolution shall thereupon be filed or registered in the office of the Registrar of Deeds and the abandoned land or interest in land shall thereupon vest in and revert to the respective owners of each part of the land or interest in land at the time of expropriation. 1994,c.6,s.62.

LAND ACQUISITION

Acquisition otherwise than by expropriation

63. The city may acquire by purchase or otherwise any lands or areas within or outside the boundaries of the city, the acquisition of which the council considers to be of advantage to the city, and to hold, use, lease, sell, encumber or otherwise dispose of the same in the discretion of the council. 1994,c.6,s.63.

STREETS

63.1 All public streets and all sewers, drains and ditches located within the boundaries of the city are vested in the city and the council shall have full control over them. 1995,c.5,s.4 {eff.} Apr. 1/95.

Streets etc., vested in city

63.2 (1) The council shall have the supervision and general control over the laying out, opening, altering, building, improving, maintenance and repair of all streets in the city.

Repair, etc.

- (2) No person shall, without the approval of the council,
- (a) open or authorize the opening of any street; or
 - (b) permit the interconnection of a street or proposed street with another street.

Opening, etc. street requires council approval

(3) Prior to granting approval, the council shall ensure that all costs associated with such opening or interconnection are or will be paid for by the person benefiting therefrom or authorizing the opening or interconnection.

Condition re costs

- (4) The council may
- (a) enter into agreements with a person respecting the construction of streets and the payment of costs related to such construction;
 - (b) make its approval subject to such conditions as it sees fit, including a condition requiring the conveyance of the street to the city.

Agreement

(5) Where an access to a street has been requested by a person, and the cost thereof has been determined and made known to that person before the work is undertaken, the council may impose, charge, and collect the cost associated with the construction, improvement, or intensification of the use of any access to the person benefiting therefrom.

Construction cost borne by person requesting access

(6) Where the costs imposed are charged under subsection (5) and remain unpaid for a period of thirty days, the council may close or remove the access, and charge the cost of the closure or removal to the person benefiting from the access.

Closure of access

(7) Where the person to whom costs have been charged under subsection (5) are not paid, the council may commence a proceeding in the Supreme Court for the recovery of such costs and charges. 1995,c.5,s.4*{eff.}* Apr. 1/95.

Recovery of costs

63.3 (1) Where in the opinion of the council a street or any portion of a street is not required for use by the public, it may cause such street or portion thereof to be discontinued

Discontinuance

(a) by recording in the registry office for Queen's County a plan thereof together with a certificate to the effect that such street or portion thereof is discontinued; or

(b) by recording in the registry office a certificate to the effect that such street or portion thereof is discontinued, which certificate shall describe that street or portion thereof in relation to property owners, property lines and existing highways or roads with sufficient particularity to enable the identification of that street or portion thereof and thereupon that street or portion thereof ceases to be a street.

Alternative access (2) Where the discontinuance of a street or portion thereof would isolate any property from a highway or road or where buildings are located along the land abutting a highway or road, the council shall not cause such street or portion thereof to be discontinued unless in its opinion adequate access to a highway or road is provided.

Cessation of public right of way (3) Where a street or portion thereof is discontinued under this section, all rights of the public to pass over the discontinued street or portion thereof cease. 1995,c.5,s.4{eff.} Apr. 1/95.

Obstruction 63.4 (1) No person shall cause any obstruction or make any encroachment upon any street or obstruct or encroach upon any sewers, drains, ditches, watercourse or public easement upon or leading to, from or across any street.

Removal of obstruction (2) The council may remove any obstructions referred to in subsection (1) at the expense of the person causing or being responsible for the obstruction. 1995,c.5,s.4 {eff.} Apr. 1/95.

Victoria Park 63.5 (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other enactment or any restrictive covenant, the council may permit, and has always been able to permit, the lands comprising Victoria Park to be used for any purpose which the council determines to be in the public interest and not to unduly detract from the physical or environmental integrity of Victoria Park, including the use of such lands for

(a) the purposes of a park, promenade, pleasure ground and place of recreation or roadway; and

(b) for the purposes of holding a circus, show or exhibition, and such use

(c) does not cause and has never caused the reversion of any of the lands comprising Victoria Park to Her Majesty in right of the Province or any other person; and

SCHEDULE 3
TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS - CITY OF CHARLOTTETOWN

1. The provisions of this Schedule have effect subject to any regulations made under section 72 for the purposes of the effective transition from the government of the City of Charlottetown and the municipalities set out in Schedule 1 under the existing Acts to government under this Act.

2. On April 1, 1995

- (a) the boundaries of the City of Charlottetown are established as provided under this Act;
- (b) the existing boundaries are altered as set out in Schedule 1 and the existing councils of the City of Charlottetown and the municipalities set out in Schedule 1 and the Commissioners of Sewer and Water Supply of the City of Charlottetown are dissolved;
- (c) the assets and liabilities of the municipal areas, communities and parts thereof located within the boundaries of the City of Charlottetown as established by this Act are transferred to the city;
- (d) the provisions of section 33 of the Interpretation Act apply and all bylaws made and having effect in the areas referred to in Schedule 1 shall continue to have effect until they are revoked or others made in their stead;
- (e) any debentures or security documents issued by a municipality referred to in Schedule 1 or a utility within a municipality shall continue to have effect with the substitution of the City of Charlottetown for the issuing authority;
- (f) repealed by 1995, c.5, s.10 {eff.} Jan. 1/96;
- (g) all existing employees of the municipalities referred to in Schedule 1 and sewerage and water utilities shall become employees of the city.

2.1 (1) For the avoidance of doubt, the projected expenditures of the city upon which the rate or rates of municipal taxation for the fiscal year 1995 shall be based shall include

- (a) the expenditures of the existing municipalities for the period January 1, 1995, to March 31, 1995;
- (b) the expenses incurred by the council incidental to the transition to this Act; and
- (c) the projected expenditures of the city for the period April 1, 1995, to December 31, 1995.

(2) For fiscal year 1995, the council may

- (a) maintain the 1994 rates of municipal taxation for the period January 1, 1995, to March 31, 1995, for those portions of the city which were former municipalities, and fix a separate rate or rates of taxation for the city for the period April 1, 1995, to December 31, 1995; or

(b) fix a blended rate or rates of taxation applicable for the period January 1, 1995, to December 31, 1995.

3. (1) The Minister responsible for government reform shall appoint a body of persons including civil servants and residents of the areas referred to in Schedule 1 to manage the transition.

(2) The Lieutenant Governor in Council shall, following consultation with the body appointed pursuant to subsection (1), exercise the powers of the council set out in section 4 and section 13 of the Act for the first election to be held.

(3) Notwithstanding section 12 of the Act, the first election of the council shall be held on October 3, 1994.

4. Subject to subsection 75(2), the council, in consultation with the body referred to in paragraph 3, and the trade unions representing the employees of the City of Charlottetown and the other municipalities referred to in Schedule 1, and the representatives of employees with no union representation, shall develop a process for

(a) the determination of appropriate bargaining units;

(b) the negotiation of the terms and conditions applicable to employment by the City of Charlottetown as reconstituted pursuant to this Act, including successor rights, job security and seniority;

(c) the expedited resolution of disputes; and

(d) the determination of transitional and jurisdictional matters, but, if the parties are unable to agree on a process for the resolution of disputes, such disputes shall be resolved by an arbitrator appointed by the Minister and such arbitrator shall have final and binding authority.

4.1 (1) Where the parties to the process provided for in section 4 agree on a method for the expedited resolution of disputes, the Minister may pay, or contribute to, the remuneration and expenses of the mediator-arbitrator to a maximum amount to be determined by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

(2) The Minister may appoint a person to facilitate an agreement or agreements among the parties on the matters outlined in clauses 4(a) to (d).

(3) Where an arbitrator is appointed pursuant to section 4, the Minister may order that the remuneration and expenses of the arbitrator be paid by the parties in such proportions as the Minister may determine.

(4) An arbitrator may

- (a) make a final and binding award on any of the issues referred to in clause 4(a), (b) or (d);
- (b) issue interim or final awards;
- (c) determine and adopt such rules and procedures as he or she considers appropriate.

(5) An award, decision, interim order, direction, declaration, or ruling of the arbitrator is final and binding, and shall not be questioned, challenged, or reviewed by the Labour Relations Board (Prince Edward Island) or in proceedings before any court, and no order shall be made, processed, or entered, or proceedings taken in any court, whether by way of an application for judicial review or otherwise, to question, review, prohibit, or restrain the arbitrator, or any of his or her proceedings.

(6) For greater certainty, it is declared that

- (a) the Labour Relations Board has no jurisdiction over the matters described in clauses 4(a) to (d);
- (b) subsection 7(2), sections 12 to 18, section 20, section 38 and subsections 39(2) to (6) of the Labour Act do not apply to the city, a sewerage and water utility, or any of their employees.

(7) Subsection (6) ceases to have effect on such date as the Lieutenant Governor in Council may determine.

(8) References to an arbitrator in subsections (4) and (5) include a mediator arbitrator appointed in accordance with a method agreed upon by the parties for the expedited resolution of disputes.

5. (1) For the purposes of an effective transition with respect to employment and following consultation with the trade unions and representatives of employees with no union representation, the council shall establish a workforce adjustment program.

(2) Provided that qualified persons are available, the staff or officer positions shall be filled by competition among the employees of the existing municipalities affected by this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the council may hold an open competition for the selection of the chief administrative officer and the appointment shall be made on the basis of the merit principle.

6. Until April 1, 1995, or such time as the transitional arrangements made under this Act cease to have effect, whichever is the earlier date the following matters shall require the approval of the Minister:

- (a) the sale of any assets or assumption of liabilities;
- (b) the setting or amending of any tax rates;

- (c) the purchase of any capital assets other than for maintenance purposes;
- (d) any new estimates or budgets or amendments to any existing estimates or budgets;
- (e) new bylaws or amendments to existing bylaws;
- (f) new official plans or amendments to existing official plans;
- (g) new subdivisions of land or amendments to existing subdivisions of land;
- (h) new contracts or amendments to existing contracts.

7. For the first elections to be held "ordinarily resident" or "resident", for the purposes of clause 5(5)(c), subsections 5(6) and 14(1) of the Act means resident within the boundaries of the city as set out in Schedule 1.

8. Notwithstanding clause 2(b) and subsection 15(5) of the Municipalities Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. M-13, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may, by order published in the Gazette, extend the term of office of any or all councils of the municipalities listed in Schedule 1.

9. Notwithstanding section 37, the council or a municipal utility corporation may incur a deficit in its estimates or budget in respect of its expenditures, not exceeding five per cent of its real property assessment on January 1, 1994.

10. The council may, during the period from its first election to the time of taking office, incur expenses incidental to the transition to this Act and those expenses shall be expenses of the city.

11. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Schedule, it is the duty of a council or any water or sewerage utility which has jurisdiction or the government of the province to continue to provide services in the same manner as before this Act comes into force until the services are provided by the council for the city under this Act and their assets and liabilities are taken over by the city.

12. Notwithstanding subsection 5(3), the Lieutenant Governor in Council shall establish the salaries and allowances of the mayor and councillors until the transitional arrangements under this Act cease to have effect.

13. Notwithstanding any provision of the Municipalities Act, the council of a community that will be dissolved in consequence of the reorganization effected by this Act is not required to hold an annual meeting in March, 1995.

14. In respect of the City of Charlottetown, the references in subsections 8.(2) and (2.1) of the Real Property Tax Act to March 31 shall in relation to the calendar year 1995 be deemed to be references to April 30.

(b) the existing boundaries are altered as set out in Schedules 4 and 5 and the existing councils of the municipalities set out in Schedules 4 and 5 are dissolved;

(c) the assets and liabilities of the municipal areas, communities and parts thereof located within the boundaries of the Town of Stratford and Cornwall as established by this Act are transferred to the Town of Stratford or the Town of Cornwall, as the case may be except the assets and liabilities of sewerage and water utilities;

(c.1) the assets and liabilities of the sewerage and water utilities are transferred to the utility corporation established by bylaw pursuant to section 104;

(d) the provisions of section 33 of the Interpretation Act apply and all bylaws made and having effect in the areas referred to in Schedule 4 and 5 shall continue to have effect until they are revoked or others made in their stead;

(e) any debentures or security documents issued by a municipality referred to in Schedule 4 or 5 shall continue to have effect with the substitution of the appropriate town for the issuing authority;

(e.1) all debentures or security documents issued by a utility within a municipality shall continue to have effect, with the substitution of the utility corporation established by bylaw pursuant to section 104;

(f) ownership of and responsibility for the maintenance of streets and highways are vested in the Minister of Transportation and Infrastructure Renewal;

(g) all existing employees of the municipalities referred to in Schedule 4 or 5 and sewerage and water utilities shall become employees of the appropriate town.

2.1 (1) For the avoidance of doubt, the projected expenditures of the town upon which the rate or rates of municipal taxation for the fiscal year 1995 shall be based shall include

(a) the expenditures of the existing municipalities for the period January 1, 1995, to March 31, 1995;

- (b) the expenses incurred by the council incidental to the transition to this Act; and
- (c) the projected expenditures of the town for the period April 1, 1995, to December 31, 1995.

(2) For fiscal year 1995, the council may

- (a) maintain the 1994 rates of municipal taxation for the period January 1, 1995, to March 31, 1995, for those portions of the town which were former municipalities or parts thereof, and fix a separate rate or rates of taxation for the town for the period April 1, 1995, to December 31, 1995,; or
- (b) fix a blended rate or rates of taxation applicable for the period January 1, 1995, to December 31, 1995.

3. (1) The Minister responsible for government reform shall appoint a body of persons including civil servants and residents of the areas referred to in Schedules 4 and 5 to manage the transition.

(2) The Lieutenant Governor in Council shall, following consultation with the body appointed pursuant to subsection (1), exercise the powers of the council set out in section 79 and section 88 of the Act for the first election to be held.

(3) Notwithstanding section 87 of the Act, the first election of the council shall be held on October 3, 1994.

4. Until April 1, 1995 or such time as the transitional arrangements made under this Act cease to have effect, whichever is the earlier date, the following matters shall require the approval of the Minister:

- (a) the sale of any assets or assumption of liabilities;
- (b) the setting or amending of any tax rates;
- (c) the purchase of any capital assets other than for maintenance purposes;
- (d) any new estimates or budgets or amendments to any existing estimates or budgets;
