C is the indexed pensionable salary of the member for that calendar year;

(pp) “weighted indexed year’s maximum pensionable earnings amount” means, in respect of a calendar year, the amount determined by the formula

(A ÷ B) x C

where

A is the total number of hours worked by a member during that calendar year for which the required contributions were made under this Act,
B is the total number of normal full-time hours for the member’s position for that calendar year, and
C is the indexed year’s maximum pensionable earnings amount of the member for that calendar year;

(qq) “year’s maximum pensionable earnings amount” means
(i) in respect of a calendar year prior to 2014 for which a member is credited with pensionable service, the average amount of the year’s maximum pensionable earnings of the member under the Canada Pension Plan for the three-year period used in subclause 1(1)(aa)(i), and
(ii) in respect of a calendar year after 2013 for which a member is credited with pensionable service, the amount of the year’s maximum pensionable earnings of the member under the Canada Pension Plan for that calendar year.

(2) Where in respect of a calendar year a member works less than the normal full-time hours for his or her position, the member’s pensionable salary for that calendar year shall be the salary the member would have received if he had worked the normal full-time hours for his position during that period.

(3) Where the last day of employment for which a member has credited pensionable service is a date other than January 1 of a calendar year, the salary indexing percentage, and the year’s maximum pensionable earnings percentage in respect of the calendar year, shall be prorated so as to be proportionate to the part of the calendar year from January 1 to the last day of that year for which the member is credited.
APPLICATION

2. (1) This Act applies to
   (a) participating employers, as prescribed by the regulations, who make or have made contributions to the Fund;
   (b) every person who is a member;
   (c) every person who
      (i) is a pensioner or a vested former member, or
      (ii) made contributions to the Fund; and
   (d) a spouse or former spouse of a person referred to in clause (b) or (c) to whom a separate pension is payable in accordance with this Act.

2. (2) This Act, as it read immediately before January 1, 2014, continues to apply on and after that date to
   (a) a member who was appointed, on or after April 1, 1997, as a judge of the Provincial Court;
   (b) the employer of a member described in clause (a) in respect of the employer’s obligations under this Act in respect of that member;
   (c) a pensioner who was, before his or her retirement, a member described in clause (a); and
   (d) a spouse or former spouse of a person referred to in clause (a) or (c) to whom a separate pension is payable in accordance with this Act.

SPOUSES

2.1 A spouse or a surviving spouse is not entitled to a division of pension benefits or to pension benefits as a spouse or a surviving spouse, if
   (a) the marriage is voidable or void; and
   (b) the person did not enter into the marriage in good faith.

RECIPROCAL TRANSFER AGREEMENTS

3. (1) The Minister may enter into a reciprocal transfer agreement with the Government of Canada upon the terms and conditions provided for and set forth in section 40 of the Public Service Superannuation Act (Canada) R.S.C. 1985, Chap. P-36.
(2) The Minister may enter into a reciprocal transfer agreement with the government of any province of Canada, with any Crown Corporation of Canada, with any municipality, college or university in Prince Edward Island or with the Council of Maritime Premiers for the transfer of superannuation funds and periods of superannuation service.

(2.1) For greater certainty, a reciprocal transfer agreement providing for the transfer of superannuation funds and periods of superannuation service may be entered into between the Minister and

(a) the Minister responsible for the administration of Teacher’s Superannuation Fund established under the Teacher’s Superannuation Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. T-1; or

(b) the Minister responsible for the Prince Edward Island Education Sector Non-Instructional Pension Plan or any successor plan.

(3) Any member or person to whom this Act is declared to apply who has been a contributor to any superannuation fund of an authority with which a reciprocal transfer agreement has been made under subsection (1), (2) or (2.1) may transfer his or her years of superannuation service as recognized by his or her employer

(a) on the transfer of the amount of superannuation funds required by the agreement; or

(b) if the agreement does not specify the amount of superannuation funds required to be transferred, on the transfer of the amount of the superannuation funds required by the Minister.

(4) Upon the transfer referred to in subsection (3) the member or person shall be deemed to have been in the employ of the provincial government for the recognized period of service, as determined by the Minister, and to be eligible accordingly to the benefits provided under this Act.

(5) Where a member or person to whom this Act is declared to apply had been a member of the registered pension plan of a previous employer and the member or person cannot access a reciprocal transfer agreement with the Fund, the Minister may permit the direct transfer of a lump-sum amount in respect of the member or person from the pension plan of the previous employer into the Fund.

(6) The pensionable service used in section 8 to determine the amount of pension to which a member or person is entitled under this Act shall include all or part of the service that had been credited to the member or person under the pension plan of the previous employer, as determined by the Minister, subject to the condition that the amount of additional pensionable service credited under this subsection shall in no case exceed the amount of service credited to the member or person under the pension plan of the previous employer.

(7) Notwithstanding subsections (5) and (6), the transfer of money from the pension plan of the previous employer shall not be accepted nor shall additional pensionable service be credited under subsection (6) unless the member or person has ceased to be a member of the pension plan of the previous employer and is not entitled to any further payments from that plan.

(8) Any reciprocal transfer agreement, the acceptance of the lump-sum amount and the crediting of additional pensionable service under this section shall be subject to any restrictions or limitations imposed under the Income Tax Act (Canada).

(9) Where a former member transfers money from the Fund into a superannuation fund referred to in subsection (3) in respect of the transfer of his or her years of superannuation service, any surplus funds remaining as a result of the transfer shall be distributed in accordance with the regulations. 1981,c.5,s.3; 1993,c.28,s.2; 1996,c.8,s.3; 2000,c.4,s.5; 2001,c.30,s.3; 2004,c.28,s.3; 2005,c.39,s.8; 2009,c.3,s.2.

ADMINISTRATION

4. (1) The Civil Service Superannuation Commission is hereby established.

(2) This Act shall be administered by the Commission.

(3) The Commission shall consist of twelve commissioners appointed as follows:

(a) six persons appointed by the Minister;
(b) two persons who are members, appointed by the Prince Edward Island Union of Public Sector Employees;
(c) one person who is a member, appointed by the Prince Edward Island Canadian Union of Public Employees;
(d) one person who is a member, appointed by the Prince Edward Island Nurses’ Union;
(e) one person who is a member, appointed by the Prince Edward Island International Union of Operating Engineers; and
(f) one person who is a pensioner, appointed by the Minister.

(4) The Minister shall appoint the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the Commission from the commissioners appointed under clause (3)(a).
(5) The vice-chairperson shall perform the duties and functions of the chairperson where the office of the chairperson is vacant or in the absence of the chairperson or where the chairperson is unable to act.

(6) The term of appointment of a commissioner is three years.

(7) A commissioner may be re-appointed.

(8) Where a commissioner’s position becomes vacant during his or her term of appointment, another person shall be appointed as commissioner in his or her stead for the unexpired balance of the term in accordance with section 4.2.

(9) The chairperson shall call a meeting of the Commission
  (a) at least twice annually and at such other times as he or she considers necessary; and
  (b) within 30 days of a request for a meeting made in writing to the chairperson by at least six commissioners. 1981,c.5,s.4; 1998,c.84,s.2; 2000,c.4,s.5; 2009,c.3,s.3; 2014,c.3,s.3.

4.1 (1) The Commission shall, each year, prepare and transmit to the Minister a report on the operations of the Fund for the Fund’s immediately preceding fiscal year, which shall include such information as is required by the Minister.

(2) The Minister shall, each year, transmit the report referred to in subsection (1) to the Lieutenant Governor in Council. 2014,c.3,s.3.

4.2 (1) In the case of the death, illness or absence from Prince Edward Island of a commissioner or his or her inability to act as a result of any cause, and subject to subsection (2), another person may be appointed to act for the unexpired balance of the term in his or her stead, and the person appointed has all the powers and shall perform all the duties of a commissioner.

(2) An appointment to replace a commissioner under this section shall be made in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as an appointment under subsection 4(3).

(3) No act of the Commission done and carried out in good faith is invalid or ineffective by reason only that it is subsequently discovered or determined that there exists some defect in the appointment, removal or qualification of any commissioner. 2014,c.3,s.3.

4.3 (1) A quorum of the Commission is six commissioners, constituted as follows:
(a) the chairperson or the vice-chairperson, when he or she is acting under subsection 4(5);
(b) two other commissioners appointed under clause 4(3)(a);
(c) three of the commissioners appointed under clauses 4(3)(b) to (f).

(2) Where a quorum is not present at the time specified for a meeting of the Commission, the commissioners present shall adjourn the meeting and not transact any other business.

(3) Where, during a meeting, a quorum is lost, the commissioners remaining at the meeting shall adjourn the meeting and not transact any further business.

(4) A meeting is validly constituted if a quorum is present, notwithstanding that a commissioner position is vacant.

(5) Where a meeting does not proceed because a quorum is not present or because a quorum is lost during a meeting, the chairperson may set the date and location of another meeting to occur within thirty days of the meeting that did not proceed, and, notwithstanding anything else in this section, the subsequent meeting may proceed regardless of whether a quorum is present. 2014,c.3,s.3.

4.4 (1) Each commissioner, in carrying out the business of the Commission, shall use the care and diligence that a person of ordinary prudence would exercise in dealing with the property of another person, and shall apply all relevant knowledge and skill that the individual possesses or, by reason of profession, business or calling, ought to possess.

(2) Each commissioner shall treat the information received as a result of his or her position on the Commission as confidential. 2014,c.3,s.3.

4.5 (1) Subject to subsection (2), a commissioner shall serve without remuneration.

(2) The following amounts are a charge upon and shall be paid out of the Fund:
   (a) all costs and reasonable expenses incurred and payable in respect of the conduct of the business and affairs of the Commission;
   (b) the reasonable travel and other expenses necessarily incurred by a commissioner in carrying out the business of the Commission. 2014,c.3,s.3.

4.6 (1) Subject to subsection (2), no commissioner shall, in the absence of any dishonesty or wilful misconduct on his or her part, be liable for the acts, neglects, or defaults or otherwise for any liabilities of the Commission or the Fund.

(2) Every commissioner shall be indemnified out of the Fund with respect to all liabilities, costs, losses and expenses, including any amount paid to settle an action or judgment, that the commissioner may incur or become liable to pay in the discharge of his or her duties as commissioner by reason of any contract entered into, or act, neglect or default, or in respect of any civil, criminal or administrative claim, action or proceeding.

(3) Nothing in this section shall exempt any commissioner from any liability, costs, losses and expenses arising out of his or her dishonesty or wilful misconduct. 2014,c.3,s.3.

4.7 The Minister shall provide all staff and other resources necessary to administer the Act and the Fund, the costs of which shall be paid out of the Fund. 2014,c.3,s.3.

4.8 (1) Where a question arises as to the application, interpretation or administration of this Act, it shall be determined by the Commission.

(2) The chairperson of the Commission shall notify the Minister of all determinations made by the Commission pursuant to subsection (1).

(3) The Minister may review any determination of the Commission made under subsection (1).

(4) After a review under subsection (3), the Minister may
(a) confirm the determination of the Commission; or
(b) substitute his or her determination for the determination of the Commission.

(5) The Minister shall notify the Commission of any substitution of a determination made under clause (4)(b). 2014,c.3,s.3.

CIVIL SERVICE SUPERANNUATION FUND

Continuation, Payments, Trust and Investments

5. (1) There shall continue to be a fund to be known as the Civil Service Superannuation Fund into which shall be paid all contributions made under this Act and out of which shall be paid only the following:
(a) all pension benefits authorized by this Act;
(b) all expenses incurred in the administration of this Act.

(2) Repealed by 2013,c.6,s.9.
(3) Repealed by 2013,c.6,s.9.

(4) The Fund shall be held in trust by the Minister and shall be invested by the Minister in accordance with the investment policy approved by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

(5) No promissory note issued by the Government to the Fund may be cancelled or recalled by the Government before the maturity of the promissory note unless the Government contributes to the Fund an asset equal to or greater than the value of the promissory note on the date the promissory note is cancelled or recalled. 1981,c.5,s.5; 1987,c.10,s.3; 1995,c.7,s.2; 1996,c.8,s.4; 1997,c.20,s.3; 2009,c.3,s.4; 2013,c.6,s.9.

Annual Report

6. Repealed by 2014,c.3,s.4. 1981,c.5,s.6; 2013,c.6,s.11; 2014,c.3,s.4.

Actuary and Actuarial Valuation Report

6.1 (1) The Minister shall appoint
(a) a person who is a Fellow of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries; or
(b) a firm of which a person referred to in clause (a) is a member, as the Actuary.

(2) The Actuary shall, on or before December 31, 2014,
(a) prepare an actuarial valuation report respecting the financial status of the fund with an effective date of April 1, 2014; and
(b) submit the actuarial valuation report to the Minister.

(3) The Actuary shall, on or before December 31, of every year following 2014,
(a) prepare an actuarial valuation report for that year respecting the financial status of the fund with an effective date of April 1 of that year; and
(b) submit the actuarial valuation report to the Minister.

(4) The Actuary shall, when preparing an actuarial valuation report under this section, follow Canadian generally accepted accounting principles for the public sector.

(5) The Actuary shall include in an actuarial valuation report the following information as of the effective date of the report:
(a) the total value of the assets of the Fund, as expressed in Canadian currency;
(b) the total value of the liabilities of the Fund, as determined by the Actuary and as expressed in Canadian currency;
(c) the funded benefits ratio of the Fund;
(d) the salary indexation asset amount of the Fund;
(e) the salary indexing percentage in respect of the immediately following year;
(f) the total cost of salary indexing for all members in respect of the immediately following year;
(g) the pension indexation asset amount of the Fund;
(h) the pension indexing percentage in respect of the immediately following year;
(i) the total cost of pension indexing for all pensioners in respect of the immediately following year;
(j) the government guarantee shortfall amount, if the Actuary is required to determine such an amount under subsection 7.04(1);
(k) such other information as the Minister may require.

(6) The Actuary shall, on or before December 31, 2014, also
(a) prepare an actuarial valuation report respecting the financial status of the fund with an effective date of January 1, 2014, which shall include the information described in subsection (5); and
(b) submit the report to the Minister.

(7) The Actuary shall, when determining the total value of the liabilities of the Fund for an actuarial valuation report with an effective date of April 1, 2014, April 1, 2015 or April 1, 2016,
(a) include the total cost of salary indexing for all members under section 7.3 for 2014, 2015 and 2016;
(b) include the total cost of pension indexing for all pensioners under section 8.01 for 2014, 2015 and 2016;
(c) not include the total cost of salary indexing for all members under section 7.3 in respect of any calendar year after 2016; and
(d) not include the total cost of pension indexing for all pensioners under section 8.01 after April 1, 2016.

(8) The Actuary shall, when determining the total value of the liabilities of the Fund for an actuarial valuation report with an effective date of April 1, 2017, or an effective date of April 1 of any subsequent year, shall not include
(a) the total cost of salary indexing for all members under section 7.3 in respect of any calendar year after the effective date of the report; and
(b) the total cost of pension indexing for all pensioners under section 8.01 after the effective date of the report. 2013,c.6,s.12; 2014,c.3,s.5.

6.2 (1) The Actuary shall, on or before December 31, 2014,
(a) conduct a going concern valuation of the financial status of the Fund, as of April 1, 2014, that is determined on a funding basis in accordance with any applicable standards of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries; and
(b) submit the results of that valuation, in writing, to the Minister.

(2) The Actuary shall, on or before December 31, of every year following 2014,
(a) conduct a going concern valuation of the financial status of the Fund, as of April 1, of every year following 2014 that is determined on a funding basis in accordance with any applicable standards of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries; and
(b) submit the results of that valuation, in writing, to the Minister.

(3) The Actuary shall, on or before December 31, 2014, also
(a) conduct a going concern valuation of the financial status of the Fund, as of January 1, 2014, that is determined on a funding basis in accordance with any applicable standards of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries; and
(b) submit the results of that valuation, in writing, to the Minister. 2013,c.6,s.12.

CONTRIBUTIONS

Base Contributions

7. (1) For the purposes of this section, for service credited to a member on or after January 1, 2013, and subject to subsections (3) and (4) and subsection 7.02(8) and the maximum contribution limits imposed under the Income Tax Act (Canada), the member shall make a base contribution to the Fund, in accordance with subsection 7.02(4) each calendar year in an amount equal to
(a) eight and nine one-hundredths per cent of that part of the member’s salary for that calendar year up to the amount of the “Year’s Maximum Pensionable Earnings”, as defined in the Canada Pension Plan Act; and
(b) nine and three-quarters per cent of that part of the member’s salary for that calendar year that exceeds the amount of the “Year’s Maximum Pensionable Earnings”, as defined in the Canada Pension Plan Act.
(2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4) and subsection 7.02(7), the employer shall, in respect of each member employed by the employer, make a base contribution to the Fund each calendar year equal to the amount of the base contribution of the member under subsection (1) and pay it to the Minister, who shall cause the same to be paid into the Fund.

(3) Where an actuarial valuation report with an effective date commencing April 1, 2016, or April 1 of any subsequent year, indicates that the funded benefits ratio of the Fund as of the effective date of the report is equal to or greater than 135%, the amount of the base contribution that a member, and that the employer of the member, is required to make to the Fund under subsections (1) and (2), respectively, is reduced in an amount equal to,

(a) in the case of a member, 1% of the member’s salary; and
(b) in the case of the employer of the member, 2% of the member’s salary,

for

(c) the calendar year immediately following the effective date of the actuarial valuation report; and
(d) each calendar year following the calendar year referred to in clause (c) until, and not including, the calendar year immediately following the effective date of a subsequent actuarial valuation report that indicates that the funded benefits ratio of the Fund is equal to or less than 130%.

(4) Where an actuarial valuation report with an effective date of April 1, 2016, or April 1 of any subsequent year, indicates that the funded benefits ratio of the Fund as of the effective date of the report is equal to or greater than 145%, the amount of the base contribution that the employer of a member is required to make to the Fund in respect of the member under subsection (2) is reduced, in addition to the reduction provided under subsection (3), by a further amount equal to 2% of the member’s salary for

(a) the calendar year immediately following the effective date of the actuarial valuation report; and
(b) each calendar year following the calendar year referred to in clause (a) until, and not including, the calendar year immediately following the effective date of a subsequent actuarial valuation report that indicates that the funded benefits ratio of the Fund is equal to or less than 140%.

Supplementary Contributions

7.01 (1) Where an actuarial valuation report with an effective date of April 1, 2016, or April 1 of any subsequent year, indicates that the funded benefits ratio of the Fund, as of the effective date of the report, is less than 110%,

(a) each member shall make a supplementary contribution to the Fund in an amount equal to 1% of the member’s salary; and
(b) the employer shall, in respect of each member employed by the employer, make a supplementary contribution to the Fund in an amount equal to 2% of the member’s salary,

for

(c) the calendar year immediately following the effective date of the report; and
(d) each subsequent calendar year until, and not including, the calendar year immediately following the effective date of a subsequent actuarial valuation report that indicates that the funded benefits ratio of the Fund is equal to or greater than 115%.

(2) Where an actuarial valuation report with an effective date of April 1, 2016, or April 1 of any subsequent year, indicates that the funded benefits ratio of the Fund, as of the effective date of the report, is less than 100%,

(a) each member shall make or continue to make the supplementary contribution to the Fund required under clause (1)(a); and
(b) the employer shall, in respect of each member employed by the employer, make or continue to make

(i) the supplementary contribution to the Fund required under clause (1)(b), and
(ii) a further supplementary contribution to the Fund in an amount equal to 2% of the member’s salary,

for

(c) the calendar year immediately following the effective date of the report; and

2013,c.6,s.13.

General

7.02 (1) A member shall make the member’s contributions to the Fund as, when and in the amounts required by this Act.
(2) Subject to subsection (3) and the requirements of sections 8507 and 8508 of the regulations to the Income Tax Act (Canada), a member who

(a) is participating in the deferred salary plan pursuant to the collective agreement; or

(b) otherwise elects to reduce his hours of work, shall continue to make his or her member’s contributions calculated on the reduced salary the member is actually receiving or, at the member’s option, on the salary he or she would have received if he or she had continued to work at the normal full-time hours for his or her position.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to a member whose hours of work are reduced to less than half of the normal full-time hours for his position.

(4) The employer of a member shall, in each pay period of the member, deduct from the member’s salary the proportionate amount of the member’s contributions and pay the same to the Minister, who shall cause the same to be paid into the Fund.

(5) A member who is receiving disability payments under a Long-Term Disability Insurance Plan shall be deemed for all purposes under this Act to continue in pensionable service during the period the member is receiving such payments if the insurer under the Long-Term Disability Insurance Plan remits to the Minister, on behalf of the member and for the benefit of the Fund, the amount of the member’s contributions for that period.

(6) In no event shall a member continue to contribute to the Fund after December 30 of the year in which the member attains the age of 71 years, and any pension to which a member is entitled under this Act shall commence to be paid not later than December 31 of the calendar year in which the member attains the age of seventy-one years.

(7) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, if an employer’s contribution would not be an eligible contribution under section 147.2(2) of the Income Tax Act (Canada), no such contribution shall be made by the employer.

(8) When, in accordance with subsection (7), contributions to the Fund must temporarily be reduced or must temporarily cease to be made, both the member’s and employer’s contributions shall be temporarily reduced in the same proportion or temporarily ceased, as the case may be.
(9) Where, pursuant to paragraphs 1(1)(hh)(i)(C) and (1)(hh)(ii)(C), the service of a member includes a period of wage loss benefits under the Workers Compensation Act, the employer shall pay the member’s contributions based on the member’s salary at the date of commencement of receipt of those benefits by the member. 2013,c.6,s.13; 2014,c.3,s.6.

TRANSITIONAL GOVERNMENT FUNDING

7.03 (1) The Government shall contribute sufficient net assets to the Fund on or before December 31, 2014, as circumstances require, to ensure that, as of January 1, 2014, the total assets of the Fund would have equaled, if those assets had been contributed on that date, an amount determined by the formula

$$(122\% \times A) + (100\% \times B)$$

where

- $A$ is the total liabilities of the Fund, the determination of which shall exclude
  - (i) the total cost of salary indexing for all members under section 7.3 in respect of any year after 2013, and
  - (ii) the total cost of pension indexing for all pensioners under section 8.01 after April 1, 2013, and
- $B$ is the sum of
  - (i) the total cost of salary indexing for all members under section 7.3 for 2014, 2015 and 2016, and
  - (ii) the total cost of pension indexing for all pensioners under section 8.01 for 2014, 2015 and 2016.

(2) Where the Government is required to contribute an asset to the Fund under subsection (1), interest is payable to the Fund by the Government on the value of the assets to be contributed, in respect of the period between the effective date of the actuarial valuation report and the date the contribution is made. 2013,c.6,s.13; 2014,c.3,s.7.

GOVERNMENT GUARANTEE

7.04 (1) Where the Actuary, when preparing an actuarial valuation report with an effective date of April 1, 2016, or April 1 of any subsequent year, has determined that

- (a) the funded benefits ratio of the Fund is less than 100% as of the effective date of the report; and
- (b) the contributions required under the Act are not projected to be sufficient to achieve a funded benefits ratio equal to or greater than 100%, on the fifth anniversary of the effective date of the actuarial valuation report, the Actuary shall determine the amount that, if it were paid into the Fund on the effective date of the actuarial valuation report, is sufficient, in the Actuary’s opinion, to achieve a funded benefits ratio of the Fund equal to 100% on the fifth anniversary of the effective date of the actuarial valuation report, which amount shall be known as the government guarantee shortfall amount.

(2) The Government shall, within six months after the submission to the Minister of an actuarial valuation report that includes a government guarantee shortfall amount, pay to the Fund an amount equal to one-fifth of that government guarantee shortfall amount.

(3) A payment by the Government under subsection (2) shall include interest for the period commencing the effective date of the report and ending on the date the payment is made. 2013,c.6,s.13.

MISSED CONTRIBUTIONS

7.1 (1) “Written notice” for the purposes of this section means written notice by the Minister to an employer and member respecting the missed contributions of a member.

(2) Where an employer has not made all or part of the deductions required by subsection 7(3) during a period in which the member was required to make contributions to the Fund, the employer shall pay to the Fund the amounts that the employer should have paid to the Fund pursuant to subsection 7(4), together with interest.

(3) A member may make contributions in respect of the member’s service for the period during which no contributions were made, where the contributions were required pursuant to subsection 7(3).

(4) Where a member makes contributions in accordance with this section, interest accrued on the member contributions payable shall be paid

(a) by the employer for the period during which no contributions were made where the contributions were required pursuant to subsection 7(3),

(i) to the date the member starts making contributions, or

(ii) to the date which is 180 days after the date of written notice, whichever is earlier; and

(b) by the member for the period from 181 days after written notice to the date the member starts making the contributions.

(5) Interest on contributions payable under this section shall be calculated at the rate of 5 per cent compounded annually.
(6) Notwithstanding subsection (4), the Minister may waive all or part of the interest payable by any person under this section. 2001,c.30,s.5; 2004,c.28,s.5.

Pensionable service

7.2 The period of service which is pensionable service for contributions made under section 7.1 is
(a) where both the employer and the member make the contributions referred to in section 7.1, the period of service in respect of which contributions are made; or
(b) where only the employer makes the contribution referred to in section 7.1, one-half of the period of service in respect of which contributions are made. 2001,c.30,s.5; 2004,c.28,s.6.

INDEXING OF SALARIES AND YEAR’S MAXIMUM PENSIONABLE EARNINGS

Definitions

7.3 (1) In this section,
(a) “member” does not include a former member;
(b) “prorated salary indexing percentage” means, in respect of a calendar year, the percentage determined by the formula
where
A is the salary indexing percentage for the calendar year,
B is the salary indexation asset amount as of the effective date of an actuarial valuation report of the immediately preceding calendar year, and
C is the total cost of salary indexing for all members for the calendar year.

Indexed pensionable salary increase

(2) Subject to subsection (3), where a member is credited with pensionable service in respect of a calendar year, the member’s pensionable salary for that calendar year, together with any accumulated salary indexing increases made under this section by January 1 of that calendar year, shall be increased by the salary indexing percentage as of January 1 of the following calendar year.

Application of prorated salary indexing percentage

(3) Where under subsection (2), the total cost of salary indexing for all members for a calendar year commencing January 1, 2017, or any subsequent calendar year, exceeds the salary indexation asset amount on the effective date of an actuarial valuation report immediately preceding the calendar year, the member’s pensionable salary for that calendar year, together with any accumulated salary indexing increases made under this section by January 1 of that calendar year, shall be indexed under subsection (2) for that calendar year using the prorated salary indexing percentage instead of the salary indexing percentage.

(4) Where
(a) the funded benefits ratio in an actuarial valuation report with an effective date of April 1, 2018, or April 1 of any subsequent year is greater than 115%; and
(b) the salary indexing for a member was determined under this section in a prior calendar year using the prorated salary indexing percentage for that calendar year, in accordance with subsection (3), the member’s pensionable salary, together with the accumulated salary indexing increases made under this section by January 1 of the calendar year immediately following the effective date of the report, shall be increased, as of January 1 of the second calendar year immediately following the effective date of the report, in such amount or by such percentage, as is required by the regulations.

(5) Subject to subsection (6), where a member is credited with pensionable service in respect of a calendar year, the member’s year’s maximum pensionable earnings amount for that calendar year, together with any accumulated indexing increases for the year’s maximum pensionable earnings amount made under this section by January 1 of that calendar year, shall be increased by the salary indexing percentage as of January 1 of the following calendar year.

(6) Where under subsection (2), the total cost of salary indexing for all members for a calendar year commencing January 1, 2017, or any subsequent calendar year, exceeds the salary indexation asset amount as of the effective date of an actuarial valuation report immediately preceding the calendar year, the member’s year’s maximum pensionable earnings amount, together with any accumulated indexing increases for the year’s maximum pensionable earnings amount shall be indexed under subsection (5) for that calendar year using the prorated salary indexing percentage instead of the salary indexing percentage.

(7) Where
(a) the funded benefits ratio in an actuarial valuation report with an effective date of April 1, 2018, or April 1 of any subsequent year, is greater than 115%; and
(b) the indexing for the year’s maximum pensionable earnings amount for a member was determined under this section in a prior calendar year using the prorated salary indexing percentage for the calendar year, in accordance with subsection (6), the member’s year’s maximum pensionable earnings amount, together with the accumulated indexing increases for the year’s maximum pensionable earnings amount made under this section by January 1 of the calendar year immediately following the effective date of the report, shall be increased, as of January 1 of the second calendar year immediately following the effective date of the report, in such amount or by such percentage, as is required by the regulations. 2013,c.6,s.15.

COMPUTATION OF PENSIONS

Amount of Pension Payable on Retirement

8. (1) A reference in this section to the number of years of CPP service of a member or vested former member is a reference to the number of years determined by the formula

\[ A - B \]

where

- \( A \) is the number of years or part years of pensionable service of the member or vested former member, and
- \( B \) is sum of the number of years or part years referred to in \( A \)
  - (a) that occurred prior to January 1, 1966,
  - (b) that the member or vested former member purchased under the regulations made under the Canada Pension Plan Agreement and Loans Act before 1988,
  - (c) that the member or vested former member was in receipt of disability benefits under a Long Term Disability Insurance Plan,
  - (d) that the member or vested former member was in receipt of wage loss benefits under the Workers Compensation Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. W-7.1 in respect of a total loss of earning capacity, and
  - (e) that the member or vested former member was in receipt of CPP retirement pension under the Canada Pension Plan.

Subsections (1.1), (1.2) repealed by 2013,c.6,s.17.

(1.3) For the purposes of this section, for service credited after January 1, 2010, a reference in this section to the number of years of CPP service of a member or vested former member shall be equal to the number of years or part years of pensionable service of the member or vested former member.

(2) The amount of yearly pension payable to any member who retires or is retired and who is eligible to receive a yearly pension pursuant to subsection 9(1) or (1.1) is equal to the amount determined by the formula

\[ (2\% \times A \times B) - C \]

where

- \( A \) is the member’s number of years of pensionable service,
B is the member’s average weighted indexed pensionable salary, and
C is the amount of the yearly pension benefits determined under subsection (2.1).

(2.1) In addition to the amount of yearly pension payable to a member under subsection (2), a member who retires or is retired prior to the age of 65 years, and who is eligible to receive a yearly pension pursuant to clause 9(1)(b) or (1)(c) or subsection 9(1.1) is entitled to receive, until he or she attains the age of 65 years, a temporary yearly pension amount equal to the amount determined by the formula

\[(0.7\% \times A \times B)\]

where A is the number of years of CPP service of the member, and B is the lesser of
(a) the member’s average weighted indexed pensionable salary, and
(b) the member’s average weighted indexed year’s maximum pensionable earnings amount.

(3) In computing the number of years of pensionable service for the purpose of this section
(a) if the actual period of pensionable service includes a fraction of a year, the fraction shall be computed on a prorated basis by reference to the number of working days in that year; and
(b) during any period in which a member is employed part-time, the period of pensionable service shall be computed by multiplying the number of years in the period by the ratio of the salary upon which the member’s contributions were based in the period to the salary the member would have been paid if he had worked the normal full-time hours for his position during that period.

(4) Repealed by 2013,c.6,s.17.

(5) Repealed by 2013,c.6,s.17.

(6) The portion of the pension in respect of pensionable service after 1991 which is payable to a member or former member under subsection (2.1) in any year under this Act prior to attaining the age of sixty-five and which is considered under paragraph 8503(2)(b) of the regulations to the Income Tax Act (Canada) to be a bridging benefit shall in no case exceed the maximum bridging benefit allowed under the said paragraph of the regulations to the Income Tax Act (Canada) with respect to service after 1991.
(7) The total pension in respect of pensionable service after 1991 which is payable to a member or former member in any year under the Act shall in no case exceed the maximum allowed under section 8504 of the regulations to the Income Tax Act (Canada) with respect to service after 1991.

(8) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act or the regulations, a lifetime pension, if any, in respect of the pensionable service prior to 1990 of any member or person entitled to a pension under this Act, shall be subject to the limits and conditions under paragraphs 8504(6) and 8504(7) of the regulations made to the Income Tax Act (Canada), if that pensionable service was not already recognized as service under this Act prior to June 8, 1990.

(9) Where there has been a division of pension benefits pursuant to this Act, the amount of pension benefits payable pursuant to subsection (2) or (2.1) shall be adjusted as prescribed by regulation. 1981,c.5,s.8; 1983,c.1,s.6; 1983,c.5,s.2; 1986,c.5,s.2; 1987,c.10,s.5; 1992,c.11,s.3; 1993,c.28,s.4; 1996,c.8,s.6; 1997,c.8,s.3; 1998,c.84,s.4; 2000,c.2,s.1; 2001,c.30,s.6; 2004,c.28,s.7; 2007,c.25,s.3; 2009,c.3,s.6; 2013,c.6,s.17; 2014,c.3,s.8.

Indexing of Pensions and Deferred Pensions

8.01 (1) In this section, “prorated pension indexing percentage” means, in respect of a year, the percentage determined by the formula

where

- \( A \) is the pension indexing percentage for the year,
- \( B \) is the pension indexation asset amount as of the effective date of an actuarial valuation report of the immediately preceding year, and
- \( C \) is the total cost of pension indexing for all pensioners for the year.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), where a pensioner is in receipt of a pension as of March 31 of a year, the pensioner’s pension for that year, together with any accumulated pension indexing increases made under this section in respect of the years after retirement, shall be increased by the pension indexing percentage as of

(a) the immediately following April 1 each year until January 1, 2017;
(b) January 1, for 2017 and each year thereafter.
(2.1) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the pension indexing percentage in respect of 2017 shall be prorated so as to be proportionate to the part of the year from April 1, 2016, to December 31, 2016.

(3) Where under subsection (2), the total cost of pension indexing for all pensioners for 2017 or any subsequent year, exceeds the pension indexing asset amount as of the effective date of an actuarial valuation report of the immediately preceding year, the pension of a pensioner shall be indexed under subsection (2) for that year using the prorated pension indexing percentage instead of the pension indexing percentage.

(4) Where

(a) the funded benefits ratio in an actuarial valuation report with an effective date of April 1, 2017, or April 1 of any subsequent year, is greater than 118%; and

(b) the pension indexing for a pensioner was determined under this section in a prior year using the prorated pension indexing percentage for that year, in accordance with subsection (3), the pension of the pensioner, together with any accumulated pension indexing increases made under this section by the effective date of the actuarial valuation report, shall be increased, on April 1 of the year immediately following the effective date of the actuarial valuation report, in such amount or by such percentage, as is required by the regulations.

(5) Where the last day of employment for a member is a date other than the date referred to in subsection (2) of a year, the pension indexing percentage in respect of the year shall be prorated so as to be proportionate to the part of the year from the last day of employment to the date of the immediately following pension indexing percentage increase.

(6) Subsections (2) to (5) apply to a pension deferred under clause 10(1)(e) or 10(2)(e). 2013,c.6,s.18; 2014,c.3,s.9.

PENSION ELIGIBILITY

8.1 Sections 9, 10 and 11 have effect subject to any restrictions on retirement age and reduction of pension imposed under the Income Tax Act (Canada). 1993,c.28,s.5.

9. (1) Subject to this Act and the regulations, where a member, at his or her date of retirement, has at least two years of service and has attained

(a) the age of 65 years;

(b) the age of 62 years; or

(c) the age of 60 years and has no pensionable service in a calendar year after 2018, the member is eligible, upon written application, to receive an unreduced yearly pension, payable monthly.

(1.1) Subject to this Act and the regulations, where a member, at his or her date of retirement, has attained the age of 55 years and has at least
(a) thirty-two years of pensionable service; or
(b) thirty years of pensionable service, none of which are in respect of a calendar year after 2018,
the member is eligible, upon written application, to receive an unreduced yearly pension, payable monthly.

(2) A member who has at least two years of service may retire or be retired on attaining the age of fifty-five years and is eligible, upon written application, to receive a reduced yearly pension, payable monthly.

(3) Repealed by 2004,c.28,s.8.

(4) Where a member is eligible to receive a reduced yearly pension pursuant to subsection (2) the amount of reduced yearly pension, shall be calculated
(a) first in accordance with section 8; and
(b) then reduced by an amount equal to the amount determined by the formula

\frac{1}{4}\% \times A \times B + \frac{1}{4}\% \times C \times D
\]

where

- \(A\) is the amount of pension in respect of pensionable service prior to 2019;
- \(B\) is the lesser of\n  (i) the number of months between the date of actual retirement and the date the member would attain the age of sixty, or
  (ii) the number of months between the date of actual retirement and the date the member would have at least 30 years of service;
- \(C\) is the amount of pension in respect of pensionable service after 2018; and
- \(D\) is the lesser of\n  (i) the number of months between the date of actual retirement and the date the member would attain the age of 62, or
  (ii) the number of months between the date of actual retirement and the date the member would have at least 32 years of service.

REFUNDS OF MEMBER’S CONTRIBUTIONS

10. (1) Where a member
   (a) has at least two years of service;
   (b) has no pensionable service in a calendar year after 2018; and
   (c) ceases to be a member prior to attaining the age of 60 years,
   the member may elect
   (d) pursuant to section 12, to receive a refund of all member’s contributions made by him or her under this Act; or
   (e) to receive a pension, the commencement of which is deferred until a date to be determined by the member that is on or after the date the member is first eligible to receive it under section 9.

   (2) Where a member
   (a) has at least two years of service;
   (b) has pensionable service in a calendar year after 2018; and
   (c) ceases to be a member prior to attaining the age of 62 years,
   the member may elect
   (d) pursuant to section 12, to receive a refund of all member’s contributions made by him or her under this Act; or
   (e) to receive a pension, the commencement of which is deferred until a date to be determined by the member that is on or after the date the member is first eligible to receive it under section 9.

11. (1) Repealed by 1993,c.28,s.8.

   (2) and (3) Repealed by 1996,c.8,s.7.

12. (1) Where a member
   (a) dies;
   (b) is dismissed; or
   (c) resigns and his resignation is accepted, before completing two years of service or where after completing two years of service he has elected to receive a refund of all member contributions pursuant to clause 10(1)(d) or 10(2)(d), the sums which have been deducted from his salary under this Act shall in case of his death be refunded to his personal representative or, in the case of his dismissal or resignation, to the member.

   (2) In the event of a return of deductions pursuant to this Act, the Minister shall pay in addition to the refund, interest thereon calculated at an annual interest rate, determined January 1 of each year, equal to the average of the CANSIM series v122526 rates, published by Statistics Canada, for the twelve-month period ending October 31, compounded annually. 1981,c.5,s.12; 1982,c.3,s.1; 1983,c.1,s.6; 1986,c.5,s.2; 1996,c.8,s.10; 2000,c.2,s.3; 2007,c.25,s.4; 2013,c.6,s.22; 2014,c.3,s.12.

REQUISITIONS FOR PAYMENTS OUT OF THE FUND

12.1 The payment of any pension or benefits under this Act, or of any expenses incurred in its administration, shall be made upon a requisition in writing signed by the chairperson or vice-chairperson of the Commission, or by persons designated to act on their behalf, directing the issuance of a cheque from the Fund for the amount named in the requisition. 2014,c.3,s.13.

DEATH OF MEMBER OR VESTED FORMER MEMBER

13. (1) Notwithstanding section 9, where a member or vested former member dies after at least two years of service and before retirement, sixty per cent of the pension to which the member or vested former member would have been eligible had the member or vested former member retired immediately prior to his death shall be paid to the surviving spouse of the member or vested former member for life.

(2) If the spouse of the member or vested former member dies before the member or vested former member or where, having survived the member or vested former member, the surviving spouse dies leaving children by the member or vested former member, the sixty per cent pension referred to in subsection (1) shall be paid in equal shares to the children if they have not attained the age of eighteen years, until they attain that age or, if attending on a full-time basis at an institution of post-secondary education, until they attain the age of twenty-one years, or, in the case of a child who is incapable by reason of mental or physical infirmity of pursuing on a regular basis any substantially gainful employment and is a dependant, for life.

(3) Where a member or vested former member does not leave a surviving spouse or children surviving him, but leaves other dependants, the sixty per cent referred to in subsection (1) shall be paid to such dependants during their lifetime.

(4) Where a pensioner dies while receiving a pension, sixty per cent of the pension that the pensioner would be entitled to receive if the pensioner had not died shall be paid

(a) to the surviving spouse of the pensioner for life, if the pensioner dies leaving a surviving spouse;

(b) to the children of the pensioner, for the period and in the shares specified in subsection 13(2), if
(i) the spouse of the pensioner dies before the pensioner and the pensioner dies leaving children surviving him or her, or
(ii) the surviving spouse of the pensioner dies after the pensioner and leaves children by the pensioner; or
(c) to such other dependants as the pensioner may leave, for life and in equal shares, if the pensioner does not leave a surviving spouse or children surviving him or her.

(5) A non-member spouse who, after pension benefits have been divided, has no further rights under the Fund pursuant to subsection 18(4) shall be deemed not to be married to the member or vested former member and not to be a spouse or surviving spouse at the date of death of the member or vested former member.

(6) In addition to the pension payable to the surviving spouse of a member or vested former member under subsection (1) or (4) an allowance equivalent to one-sixth of the pension paid to the surviving spouse of the member or vested former member shall be paid to the surviving parent or guardian on behalf of each child of the member or vested former member, up to a maximum of four, at any one time, commencing with the oldest four, until the child attains the age of eighteen years or if attending on a full-time basis at an institution of post-secondary education, until the child attains the age of twenty-one years.

(7) If a member or vested former member dies leaving only a child or children entitled to receive payments hereunder for a limited number of years, and the total of the payments is less than the total of deductions from the salary of the member under this Act, then the excess shall be paid to the personal representatives of the member or vested former member, or to the children of the member or vested former member in a lump sum.

(8) Nothing in this section applies in respect of a member or vested former member or the dependants of a member or vested former member whose contributions have been refunded under section 12.

(9) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act or the regulations to this Act, benefits payable upon the death of a member, vested former member or person entitled to benefits under this Act shall not exceed nor be inconsistent with those permitted under the Income Tax Act (Canada).

(10) For greater certainty, any portion of a pension payable to a surviving spouse child or dependant of a member, vested former member or pensioner under this section that is composed of the temporary benefit provided under subsection 8(2.1) ceases to be payable under this section on the date when the member, vested former member or pensioner would have, but for his or her death, attained the age of 65 years. 1981,c.5,s.13; 1982,c.3,s.2; 1987,c.10,s.7; 1992,c.11,s.5; 1996,c.8,s.8; 2004,c.28,s.10; 2007,c.25,s.4; 2008,c.8,s.3(4),(5),(6); 2008,c.37,s.3; 2014,c.3,s.14.

14. The pension or allowance payable to a member or vested former member, or to the surviving spouse, children or dependants of a member or vested former member, shall be paid in monthly instalments and is payable for the whole of the month in which the recipient dies or ceases to be eligible to receive it. 1981,c.5,s.14; 1983,c.5,s.3; 2004,c.28,s.11; 2008,c.8,s.3(6).

15. No right of a person under this Act is capable of being assigned, charged, anticipated, given as security or surrendered, and, for the purposes of this section

(a) assignment does not include assignment pursuant to a decree, order or judgment of a competent tribunal or a written agreement in settlement of rights arising as a consequence of the breakdown of a spousal relationship between an individual and the individual’s spouse or former spouse nor does it include assignment by the legal representative of a deceased individual on the distribution of the individual’s estate; and

(b) surrender does not include a reduction in benefits to avoid the revocation of the registration under the Income Tax Act (Canada) of the pension plan provided for in this Act. 1993, c.28, s.10; 2008,c.8,s.3(7).

RE-EMPLOYMENT

16. (1) Every person receiving a pension under this Act, upon re-employment with a participating employer in a permanent full-time or part-time position, ceases to be entitled to the pension and payment thereof as long as the person continues to be re-employed.

(2) Where the re-employment of a person referred to in subsection (1) ceases, the person is eligible to receive a pension determined by the formula

where

A is the amount of the pension paid to the person immediately prior to his or her most recent period of re-employment, and

B is the pension calculated in accordance with section 8 in respect of the pensionable service credited to the member during the most recent period of re-employment. 1983,c.5,s.4; 1993,c.28,s.11; 2000,c.4,s.2; 2001,c.30,s.8; 2005,c.41,s.18; 2013,c.6,s.25.

INTERUPTION OF SERVICE

17. (1) Interruption of service by reason of any member’s enlistment and service in any of Her Majesty’s forces or in services auxiliary thereto in time of war shall be disregarded in computing time of pensionable service and in assigning entitlement for it, and the member shall be regarded as being in pensionable service without any contribution required during the whole period of service in the forces or auxiliaries.

1.1) Recognition of any periods of wartime service which occur after 1989 shall be subject to the limits and conditions under section 8507 of the regulations to the Income Tax Act (Canada).

(2) If a member is granted leave of absence without pay, other than for service in time of war in Her Majesty’s forces or auxiliaries, no contribution will be required from the member during the period of absence, and except as otherwise permitted by the regulations, the period of leave shall not

(a) be calculated as part of service either to entitle the member to a pension or to increase the amount of pension to be allowed; and

(b) be considered to be an interruption in the continuity of service.

(3) Where a person

(a) previously resigned from employment that entitled the person to pension benefits under this Act;

(b) elected, on that resignation, to receive a refund of contributions and interest thereon under section 12 in respect of his or her years of service; and

(c) is subsequently re-employed in employment that qualifies the person as a member under this Act, the person may have his or her pensionable service restored as if the member had been absent with leave under subsection (2), if the member repays to the Fund the amount that is the actuarial value, as determined by the Minister, of the pension benefits that the member will be eligible for under this Act in respect of the period of service that is restored.

(4) A repayment referred to in subsection (3) shall, unless the Minister determines otherwise, be made by a single lump sum payment.

4.1) Where a member has, under the former subsection (4), begun but not completed the full repayment of the amount required under the former subsection (3), the member may, on the coming into force of this subsection, have his or her continuity of service restored in accordance with the former subsections (3) and (4).

(2) A reference in subsection (4.1) to the former subsection (3) or to the former subsection (4) is a reference to those subsections as they read immediately before the date this subsection comes into force.

(3) A repayment referred to in subsection (3) shall not exceed such limit as may be prescribed under the Income Tax Act (Canada) and, if the amount of refund received by the member at the time of his previous withdrawal was more than the amount of his own contributions accumulated with interest, any such repayment must be done by transferring an amount directly into the Fund from a registered retirement savings plan owned by the member or from another registered pension plan of which the member was a member.

(4) Repealed by 1996, c.8, s.9; 1981, c.5, s.16; 1993, c.28, s.12; 1996, c.8, s.17; 2001, c.4, s.3; 2001, c.30, s.9; 2004, c.28, s.12; 2014, c.3, s.15.

17.1 Repealed by S.P.E.I., 2001, c.30, s.10.

17.2 Repealed by 2004, c.28, s.13. 1998, c.84, s.5; 1999, c.21, s.3; 2004, c.28, s.13.

DIVISION OF PENSION BENEFITS

18. (1) A person who is a member, a vested former member or a pensioner, or a spouse or former spouse of one of those persons, may, after the date of separation, apply to the Minister in writing for information in respect of a division of the pension benefits earned during the period of the spousal relationship between the person and the spouse or former spouse.

18.1 A person who is a member, a vested former member or a pensioner, or a spouse or former spouse of one of those persons, may, in the circumstances described in subsection (2), apply to the Minister to divide the pension benefits to which the person is entitled under this Act between the person and the spouse or former spouse.

(2) An application may be made where
(a) a court of competent jurisdiction in Canada, in proceedings in relation to a divorce or an annulment of marriage, makes an order that provides for the division of pension benefits under this Act between the person and the spouse or former spouse;
(b) the person and the spouse or former spouse have entered into a written witnessed domestic contract that provides for the division of.
pension benefits between them upon divorce or annulment of marriage or upon separation;
(c) one of the spouses commences an application based on subsection 6(2) of the Family Law Act respecting improvident depletion that is subsequently granted; or
(d) a court of competent jurisdiction, in proceedings under the Family Law Act, makes an order that provides for the division of pension benefits under this Act between the person and the spouse or former spouse, and the effective date of the divorce or annulment of marriage or the separation referred to in clauses (a), (b) and (d), or the date of the application referred to in clause (c), is on or after January 1, 1998.

(3) The pension benefits shall be determined as of the valuation date in accordance with this Act and the regulations and shall be divided in accordance with an order of the court, the terms of a domestic contract or an order under the Family Law Act.

(4) If the pension benefits under the Fund have been divided in accordance with subsection (3), the spouse or former spouse has no further right under the Fund and the member’s, vested former member’s, or pensioner’s pension benefits shall be determined accordingly.

(5) A division of pension benefits under the Fund pursuant to the circumstances in subsection (2) shall not result in a reduction of a member’s, vested former member’s, or pensioner’s pension benefits earned during the period of the spousal relationship by more than fifty per cent.

(6) If a member would not be entitled to a deferred pension at the date of separation, the portion of the member’s contributions with interest to be attributed to the spouse or former spouse shall be paid out in cash in accordance with this Act and the regulations.

(7) Where a court order or domestic contract provides for payment by the member, vested former member, or pensioner of a sum equal to and in lieu of the amount owing to the member’s, vested former member’s or pensioner’s spouse or former spouse in relation to pension benefits, the Minister and the Fund are not liable for any payments.

(8) An application under subsection 18(1.1) shall be made in writing containing the prescribed information, accompanied by a certified true copy of the court order or domestic contract and by such other documents as are prescribed. 1998,c.84,s.6; 2004,c.28,s.14; 2014,c.3,s.16.
| Determination of questions of application | 19. Repealed by 2014,c.3,s.17. 1981,c.5,s.18; 2014,c.3,s.17. |
| Interested party | 20. (1) In this section and in sections 21 and 23 the term “interested party” means the person who is a member, a vested former member or a pensioner, and the spouse or former spouse of such person, between whom the person’s pension benefits under this Act are sought to be divided in an application under subsection 18(1.1). |
| Notice of receipt of application | (2) The Minister shall, after receiving an application under subsection 18(1.1), send a notice of the receipt in the prescribed manner to each interested party. |
| Notice where interested party is not applicant | (3) In the case of an interested party who is not the applicant, the notice shall include any document or information prescribed by regulation. |
| Notice received by interested party | (4) The notice is deemed to be received by an interested party thirty days after the day on which it is sent in the prescribed manner to that party. 1998,c.84,s.7; 2014,c.3,s.18. |
| Interested party objects | 21. (1) An interested party who objects to the division of pension benefits on any of the grounds described in subsection (2) |
| | (a) may submit a notice to the Minister or his or her delegate in writing within thirty days after the day on which notice of the receipt of the application is deemed under subsection 20(4) to be received by that party; and |
| | (b) shall include with the notice, documentary evidence to establish the grounds for objection. |
| Grounds for objection | (2) The grounds for objection are |
| | (a) that the court order, or domestic contract has been varied or is of no force or effect; |
| | (b) that the terms of the court order or domestic contract have been, or are being satisfied by other means; or |
| | (c) that proceedings have been commenced in a court of competent jurisdiction in Canada to appeal or review the court order or challenge the terms of the domestic contract. 1998,c.84,s.7. |
| Minister approves division | 22. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the Minister shall, as soon as is practicable after the Minister is satisfied that an application meets the requirements of this Act, approve the division of the pension benefits for which the application is made. |
| Deferral of decision | (2) If an interested party submits a notice of objection to the Minister in accordance with section 21, the Minister shall defer any decision on the application until such time as the Minister is able to ascertain to the Minister's satisfaction whether the grounds referred to in clauses 21(2)(a) or (b) have been established, or until the final disposition of the proceedings referred to in clause 21(2)(c), as the case may be.

(3) The Minister shall refuse to approve the division of pension benefits under this Act where

(a) the application for the division does not meet the requirements of this Act;

(b) the application is withdrawn in accordance with the regulations;

(c) the Minister is satisfied that grounds for objection under clause 21(2)(a) or (b) have been established and that they provide sufficient reason to refuse the division;

(d) as a result of the proceedings described in clause 21(2)(c), the court finds that the court order or domestic contract is of no force or effect in respect of the division of pension benefits; or

(e) the period subject to division cannot be determined.

1998,c.84,s.7.

23. (1) A division of pension benefits shall be effected by transferring in accordance with subsection (3), (3.1) or (3.2) a share of the pension benefits of the member, vested former member or pensioner subject to division, as determined in accordance with this Act and the regulations.

(2) The pension benefits of the member, vested former member or pensioner shall be adjusted for the period between valuation date and the date the division is effected in accordance with the regulations.

(3) A spouse or former spouse of a member or a vested former member shall elect, in writing, that the Minister either

(a) transfer the share of pension benefits to the spouse or former spouse as a separate pension; or

(b) pay to the spouse or former spouse the share of the contributions made by the member or vested former member to the Fund that are attributed to the spouse or former spouse upon division of pension benefits.

(3.1) The Minister shall transfer the share of pension benefits to the spouse or former spouse of a pensioner as a separate pension.

(3.2) Notwithstanding subsections (3) and (3.1), where a request for information has been made to the Minister under subsection 18(1) prior to April 1, 2015, and an application for division of benefits has been made to the Minister under subsection 18(1.1) prior to January 1, 2019, a non-member spouse or non-member former spouse may direct the Minister to transfer his or her share of the pension benefits subject to division to one of the following:
(a) a pension plan selected by the spouse or former spouse that is registered under the Income Tax Act (Canada), if that pension plan so permits;
(b) a retirement savings plan or fund for the spouse or former spouse that is of a prescribed kind;
(c) a financial institution authorized to sell immediate or deferred life annuities of a prescribed kind, for the purchase of such an annuity for the spouse or former spouse.

(3.3) The share of pension benefits referred to in subsection (3.2) shall not exceed fifty per cent of the pension benefits of the member, vested former member or pensioner, as determined in accordance with the regulations.

(4) If the spouse or former spouse fails to direct the Minister in relation to the manner in which his or her entitlement is to be dealt with, that spouse shall be deemed to have directed the Minister to transfer to the spouse or former spouse the share of the pension benefits as a separate pension from the Fund.

(5) Where the pension benefits of a member, vested former member or pensioner have been divided under this section the pension benefits and accumulated contributions contributed by the member, vested former member or pensioner shall be adjusted in accordance with the regulations.

(6) Where both spouses or former spouses are either members, vested former members, or pensioners, and the pension benefits of only one spouse or former spouse have been divided pursuant to this Act, the receiving spouse or former spouse is not entitled to a lump sum payment under subsection 23(3.2) and the division shall be effected in accordance with the regulations.

(6.1) Notwithstanding subsection (6), a receiving spouse or former spouse who terminates and withdraws his or her pension benefits from the Fund after a request for information has been made to the Minister under subsection 18(1) prior to April 1, 2015, and an application for division of benefits has been made to the Minister under subsection 18(1.1) prior to January 1, 2019, shall receive a lump-sum amount in accordance with subsection (3.2), as if he or she were a non-member spouse or non-member former spouse when the application for division of pension benefits was made.

(7) Where the pension benefits of a member, vested former member or pensioner in respect of a given period of spousal relationship have been divided under this section, no further division of pension benefits may be made under this section in respect of that period.

(8) An amount that cannot be transferred in accordance with subsection 23(1) by reason only of the death of the spouse or former spouse shall be paid to the estate of the spouse or former spouse.

(9) The Minister shall send a notice of the division of the pension benefits to each interested party. 1998,c.84,s.7; 2008,c.8,s.3(8); 2008,c.37,s.4; 2014,c.3,s.19.

23.1 (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a spouse or former spouse who is entitled to a separate pension dies prior to commencing receipt of the separate pension, the estate of the spouse or former spouse is entitled to receive out of the Fund an amount determined by the formula

\[10 \times A\]

where

A is the yearly separate pension to which the spouse or former spouse would have been entitled if he or she had commenced to receive the separate pension immediately prior to his or her death.

(2) Subsection 27.02(3) is not applicable to the yearly separate pension used to calculate the amount payable to the estate of the spouse or former spouse under subsection (1).

(3) Where a spouse or former spouse who is entitled to a separate pension dies after commencing to receive the separate pension, the estate of the spouse or former spouse is entitled to receive out of the Fund an amount determined by the formula

\[(120 - A) \times B\]

where

A is the number of months for which the spouse or former spouse received the separate pension; and B is the monthly separate pension the spouse or former spouse was receiving at his or her date of death. 2014,c.3,s.20.

24. If the amount transferred in respect of a spouse or former spouse or paid to the estate of that deceased person under subsection 23(8) exceeds the amount to which that person was entitled to have transferred or the estate was entitled to be paid, the amount in excess constitutes a debt due to the Government of Prince Edward Island by that spouse, former spouse or estate. 1998,c.84,s.7.

25. Where an adjustment is made under section 23, and an amount is or has been paid to a member, vested former member, or pensioner that exceeds the amount to which that member, vested former member, or pensioner is or would have been entitled under the Fund after the effective date of that adjustment, the amount in excess constitutes a debt due the Government of Prince Edward Island by that member, vested former member, or pensioner and may be recovered at any time by set-off against any pension benefits that are payable to that member, vested former member, or pensioner from the Fund, without prejudice to any other recourse for recovery that may be available to the Government of Prince Edward Island. 1998,c.84,s.7; 2014,c.3,s.21.

26. (1) Amounts to which a spouse or former spouse is or may become entitled under section 23 are not capable of being assigned, charged, anticipated or given as security, and any transaction that purports to assign, charge, anticipate or give as security any such amount is void.

(2) Subject to sections 24 and 25 and regulations made pursuant to subsection 28(k), amounts to which a spouse or former spouse is or may become entitled under section 23 are exempt from attachment, seizure and execution, either at law or in equity. 1998,c.84,s.7.

27. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, where a court of competent jurisdiction in Canada so orders, the Minister shall not, for such period as the court may order, take any action on the direction of a member, vested former member or pensioner that may prejudice the ability of the spouse or a former spouse to make an application or obtain a division of pension benefits under this Act.

(2) The Minister shall provide a person with prescribed information concerning the pension benefits that are or may become payable to or in respect of a member, vested former member, or pensioner under the Fund if the person is

   (a) the member, vested former member or pensioner; or
   (b) a spouse or former spouse of a person referred to in clause (a).

(3) The Minister shall provide notification to a member, vested former member or pensioner of information provided to a spouse or former spouse under subsection (2). 1998,c.84,s.7; 2014,c.3,s.22.

27.01 (1) In respect of a division of pension benefits in which the member, vested former member or pensioner has, as of the date of separation, no pensionable service after December 31, 2018, a spouse or former spouse of the member, vested former member or pensioner is eligible, upon written application, to receive an unreduced yearly separate pension, payable monthly, if the member, vested former member or pensioner has attained or would have, if he or she was not deceased, attained:
(a) the age of sixty years and at the date of separation had at least two years of service; or
(b) the age of fifty-five years, and at the date of separation had at least thirty years of pensionable service.

(2) In respect of a division of pension benefits in which the member, vested former member or pensioner has, as of the date of separation, pensionable service after December 31, 2018, the spouse or former spouse of the member, vested former member or pensioner is eligible, upon written application, to receive an unreduced yearly separate pension, payable monthly, if the member, vested former member or pensioner has attained or would have, if he or she was not deceased, attained:
(a) the age of sixty-two years and at the date of separation had at least two years of service; or
(b) the age of fifty-five years, and at the date of separation had at least thirty-two years of pensionable service.

(3) A spouse or former spouse of a member, vested former member or pensioner is eligible, upon written application, to receive a reduced yearly separate pension, payable monthly, if the member, vested former member or pensioner has attained or would have, if he or she was not deceased, attained the age of fifty-five years and at the date of separation had at least two years of service. 2014,c.3,s.23.

27.02 (1) The amount of a yearly separate pension payable to a spouse or former spouse of a member, vested former member or pensioner who is eligible to receive an unreduced yearly separate pension under subsections 27.01(1) or (2) is equal to the amount determined by the formula

(A \times B ÷ C \times D)

where
\( A \) is the member’s, vested former member’s or pensioner’s yearly pension payable calculated in accordance with subsection 8(2) as if the member, vested former member or pensioner had terminated employment on the date of separation,
\( B \) is the member’s, vested former member’s or pensioner’s pensionable service during the period of the spousal relationship, which is equal to the sum of
(i) the number of years and part years that occurred and were credited as pensionable service to the member, vested former member or pensioner during the period of the spousal relationship and are included in “C”,
(ii) in respect of purchased pensionable service, the number of years and part years that occurred prior to the commencement of the spousal relationship which were not included to calculate benefits at the commencement of the spousal relationship but were credited as pensionable service to the member, vested former member or pensioner during the period of the spousal relationship and are included in “C” at the date of separation, and
(iii) in respect of pensionable service transferred from another pension plan on or before the date of separation under a reciprocal transfer agreement entered into pursuant to section 30, the number of years and part years of pensionable service that were credited to the member, vested former member or pensioner under the other pension plan during the period of the spousal relationship and are included in “C” at the date of separation,
C is the member’s, vested former member’s or pensioner’s pensionable service up to the date of separation, which is equal to
(i) the total number of years and part years of pensionable service which would be used to calculate the pension benefits of the member, vested former member or pensioner as if the member, vested former member or pensioner had terminated employment on the date of separation, or
(ii) the total number of years and part years of pensionable service used to calculate the pension benefits of the member, vested former member or pensioner upon termination of employment where the member, vested former member or pensioner terminated employment before the date of separation,
D is the share of the member’s, vested former member’s or pensioner’s pension benefits earned during the spousal relationship that is attributable to the spouse or former spouse, which in no case shall exceed 50 per cent.

(2) In addition to the amount of yearly separate pension payable to a spouse or former spouse of a member, vested former member or pensioner under subsection (1), a spouse or former spouse who commences receiving a separate pension under this Act prior to the date at which the member, vested former member or pensioner will attain or would have, if he or she was not deceased, attained the age of sixty-five years, and who is eligible to receive an unreduced yearly separate pension under subsections 27.01(1) or (2), is entitled to receive, until the date at which the member, vested former member or pensioner attains or would have, if he or she was not deceased, attained the age of sixty-five years, a yearly temporary separate pension amount equal to the amount determined by the formula
(A \times B \div C \times D)

where

A is the member’s, vested former member’s or pensioner’s yearly temporary pension amount calculated in accordance with subsection 8(2.1) as if the member, vested former member or pensioner had terminated employment on the date of separation,
B is the member’s, vested former member’s or pensioner’s pensionable service during the period of the spousal relationship described in subsection (1),
C is the member’s, vested former member’s or pensioner’s pensionable service up to the date of separation described in subsection (1),
D is the share described in subsection (1).

(3) Where a spouse or former spouse of a member, vested former member or pensioner is eligible to receive a reduced yearly separate pension under subsection 27.01(3), the amount of reduced yearly separate pension shall be equal to the difference between

(a) the amount the spouse or former spouse would receive as an unreduced yearly separate pension under subsections (1) and (2) if the spouse or former spouse were eligible to receive an unreduced yearly separate pension; and

(b) the amount determined by the formula

\[(\frac{1}{4}\% \times A \times B) + (\frac{1}{4}\% \times C \times D)\]

where

A is the amount of pension in clause (a) in respect of the member’s, vested former member’s or pensioner’s pensionable service during the period of the spousal relationship described in subsection (1) that was credited to the member, vested former member or pensioner prior to 2019,
B is the lesser of

(i) the number of months between the date that the spouse or former spouse commences receipt of his or her separate pension and the date the member, vested former member or pensioner will attain or would have, if he or she was not deceased, attained the age of sixty, or

(ii) the number of months between the member’s, vested former member’s or pensioner’s pensionable service up to the date of separation described in subsection (1) and thirty years of pensionable service,
C is the amount of pension in clause (a) in respect of the member’s, vested former member’s or pensioner’s pensionable service during the period of the spousal relationship described in subsection (1) that was credited to the member, vested former member or pensioner prior to 2019, subsection (1) that was credited to the member, vested former member or pensioner after 2018,

\[ D \] is the lesser of

(i) the number of months between the date that the spouse or former spouse commences receipt of his or her separate pension and the date the member, vested former member or pensioner will attain or would have, if he or she was not deceased, attained the age of sixty-two, or

(ii) the number of months between the member’s, vested former member’s or pensioner’s pensionable service up to the date of separation described in subsection (1) and thirty-two years of pensionable service.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), a separate pension shall be indexed in accordance with subsections 8.01(2) to (4), with indexation commencing in respect of the year in which the date of separation occurred.

(5) Where the date of separation is a date other than a date specified in subsection 8.01(2) in respect of a year, the pension indexing percentage in respect of that year shall be prorated so as to be proportionate to the part of the year from the date of separation to the date of the immediately following pension indexing percentage increase. 2014,c.3,s.23.
