(2) Where the owner of the dog referred to in subsection (1) is identified, he is liable for the payment of the fees referred to in subsection 14(2), and for the costs of any action that may be necessary to recover the fees. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. D-14, s.15.

Owner identified, liability for costs

PART III DANGEROUS DOGS

16. (1) A peace officer may commence a proceeding in the Provincial Court against an owner of a dog if the peace officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that

Proceeding commenced in Provincial Court

- (a) the dog has bitten or attacked a person or a domestic animal; or
- (b) the dog has behaved in a manner that poses a menace to the safety of persons or domestic animals.

(2) A peace officer who wishes to commence a proceeding referred to in subsection (1) shall

Orders under statutes

- (a) complete a statement in the prescribed form under oath attesting, on reasonable grounds, to the existence of facts that would justify the order sought;

- (b) serve a copy of the statement on the owner or owners of the dogs; and
- (c) file a copy of the statement with the Provincial Court.

Interim order

(3) When a proceeding has been commenced under subsection (1), the Provincial Court may, pending a determination of whether an order should be made under subsection (4), make an interim order requiring the owner to take measures specified in the interim order for the more effective control of the dog.

Order

(4) If, in a proceeding under subsection (1), the Provincial Court finds that the dog has bitten or attacked a person or a domestic animal or that the dog's behaviour is such that the dog is a menace to the safety of persons or domestic animals, and the Provincial Court is satisfied that an order is necessary for the protection of the public, the Provincial Court may order

- (a) that the dog be destroyed in the manner specified in the order;
- (b) that the dog be neutered or sprayed, as the case may be; or
- (c) that the owner of the dog take the measures specified in the order for the more effective control of the dog or for purposes of public safety.

Measures

(5) Measures that may be ordered under subsection (3) or clause (4)(c) include

- (a) confining the dog to its owner's property;
- (b) restraining the dog by means of a leash;
- (c) restraining the dog by means of a muzzle; and
- (d) posting warning signs.

Restraint of dog

(6) If a dog whose destruction has been ordered under clause (4)(a) is not taken into custody immediately, the owner shall restrain the dog by means of a leash and muzzle and such other means as the Provincial Court may order until the dog is taken into custody.

Factors

(7) In exercising its powers to make an order under subsection (4), the Provincial Court may take into consideration the following factors:

- (a) the dog's past and present temperament and behaviour;
  - (b) the seriousness of the injuries caused by the biting or attack;
  - (c) unusual contributing circumstances tending to justify the dog's action;
  - (d) the improbability that a similar attack will be repeated;
  - (e) the dog's physical potential for inflicting harm;
  - (f) precautions taken by the owner to preclude similar attacks in the future;
  - (g) any other circumstances that the court considers to be relevant.
- R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. D-14, s.16; 2005,c.30,s.6.

- 16.1 Where, in a proceeding under subsection 16(1), the Provincial Court finds that the dog has bitten or attacked a person or a domestic animal or the dog's behaviour is such that the dog is a menace to the safety of persons or domestic animals, the Provincial Court may make an order prohibiting the dog's owner from owning another dog during a specified period of time. 2005,c.30,s.6. Order
- 16.2 For the purposes of sections 16.3 to 16.8, a peace officer includes Peace officer
- (a) a police officer, a security police officer or municipal bylaw enforcement officer; and
  - (b) an enforcement officer. 2005,c.30,s.6; 2006,c.16,s.63(2).
- 16.3 (1) Where a justice of the peace is satisfied by information on oath or affirmation that there are reasonable grounds to believe that Application
- (a) a dog is in any building, receptacle or place, including a private dwelling; and
  - (b) it is not in the interests of public safety for the dog to be in that location,
- the justice of the peace may issue a warrant authorizing a peace officer named in the warrant to enter any building, receptacle or place, including a private dwelling, to search for and seize the dog and any muzzle, collar or other equipment for the dog.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of clause (1)(b), it is not in the interests of public safety for a dog to be in a location if Public safety
- (a) the dog has on one or more occasions bitten or attacked a person or a domestic animal; or
  - (b) the dog has on one or more occasions behaved in a manner that poses a menace to the safety of persons or domestic animals.
- (3) A peace officer who is executing a warrant under this section may be accompanied by one or more veterinarians or animal control personnel as are reasonably required to give effect to the safe and humane seizure of the dog, whether the accompanying persons are named in the warrant or not. Warrant
- (4) Every warrant issued under this section shall name a date on which it expires, which date shall be not later than 30 days after the date of its issue. Idem
- (5) Every warrant shall be executed between 6 a.m. and 9 p.m., unless the warrant otherwise authorizes. 2005,c.30,s.6. Idem
- 16.4 (1) Where the circumstances in clauses 16.3(1)(a) and (b) exist and it would be impracticable to obtain a warrant due to exigent circumstances, a peace officer may, without a warrant, Exigent circumstances

- (a) enter any building, receptacle or place, including a private dwelling, to search for and seize the dog and any muzzle, collar or other equipment for the dog; or
- (b) be accompanied by one or more veterinarians or animal control personnel as are reasonably required to give effect to the safe and humane seizure of the dog, whether the accompanying persons are named in the warrant or not.

Idem (2) In this section, exigent circumstances include circumstances in which the peace officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that entry into any building, vehicle, receptacle or place, including a private dwelling, is necessary to prevent imminent bodily harm or death to any person. 2005,c.30,s.6.

Seizure of dog 16.5 (1) A peace officer may seize a dog in a public place if the peace officer believes, on reasonable grounds that,

- (a) the dog has on one or more occasions bitten or attacked a person or a domestic animal;
- (b) the dog has on one or more occasions behaved in a manner that poses a menace to the safety of persons or domestic animals;
- (c) an owner of the dog has on one or more occasions failed to exercise reasonable precautions to prevent the dog from
  - (i) biting or attacking a person or a domestic animal,
  - (ii) behaving in a manner that poses a menace to the safety of persons or domestic animals; or
- (d) there is reason to believe that the dog may cause harm to a person or domestic animal.

Idem (2) Subsection (1) shall not be interpreted to restrict seizure of a dog in a public place if the seizure is otherwise lawful. 2005,c.30,s.6.

Force as necessary 16.6 A peace officer may use as much force as is reasonably necessary to execute a warrant issued under section 16.3 or to exercise any authority given by section 16.4 or section 16.5. 2005,c.30,s.6.

Shelter 16.7 A peace officer who seizes a dog under section 16.3, 16.4 or 16.5 shall promptly deliver the seized dog to a shelter operated by the Society. 2005,c.30,s.6.

Obstruction 16.8 No person shall obstruct, impede or assault a peace officer, or any person assisting a peace officer, while the peace officer is exercising his or her authority or performing a duty under this Act or the regulations, and no person shall aid or assist any person in obstructing, impeding or assaulting a peace officer. 2005,c.30,s.6.
