THIRD PARTY LIABILITY

16. (1) Where the Minister has knowledge or reasonable grounds to believe that a person is a third party, the Minister may serve a demand on the third party requiring that all or any part of the money that is payable by the third party to a financial corporation liable to pay the tax be paid to the Minister within

- (a) thirty days after the day on which the demand is served; or
- (b) any longer period that the Minister specifies, and upon service of the demand the Minister has an equitable interest in the money payable to the extent of the tax owing by the financial corporation liable to pay the tax.

(2) The receipt of the Minister for money paid under this section is a good and sufficient discharge of the liability of the third party to the extent of the payment by the third party under this section.

(3) Where a third party is served with a demand under this section and subsequently pays an amount to the financial corporation liable to pay the tax, the third party is liable to pay Her Majesty in right of the province to the extent of the lesser of

- (a) the amount paid to the financial corporation liable to pay the tax; and
- (b) the amount specified in the demand, and the amount referred to in clause (a) or (b), as the case may be, may be recovered from the third party in the same manner as the tax. 1988, c.24, s.16.

ORDERS AND DEMANDS

17. (1) Where the books of account and records kept by a financial corporation are, in the opinion of the Commissioner, inadequate for the purposes of this Act, the Commissioner may, by written order, require books of account and records to be kept by the financial corporation in such form and manner as the Commissioner may determine and the Commissioner may specify a reasonable time within which the order shall be complied with.

(2) A financial corporation to which an order is issued under subsection (1) shall, within the specified time, keep the books of account and records in the form and manner required under subsection (1). 1988, c.24, s.17.

Additional information

18. The Minister may, by order, require any person

(a) to provide the Minister with any information necessary for ensuring and securing compliance with this Act and the regulations under this Act;

(b) to produce for the Minister any book, record, writing or other document in the possession or control of the person; or

(c) to make available to the Minister any books, records or documents of a financial corporation necessary for ensuring and securing compliance with this Act and the regulations under this Act, and the Minister may specify a reasonable time within which the order is to be complied with. 1988, c.24, s.18.

Production of documents

19. (1) For the purposes of ensuring and securing compliance with this Act and the regulations under this Act, the Minister may demand in writing from any person, including the president, manager, secretary, director, agent or representative of a financial corporation,

(a) a return and any information related to a return; and

(b) the production, including the production on oath or solemn affirmation, of any books, letters, accounts, invoices, financial or other statements or any other document, which relate to a financial corporation liable to pay the tax.

Idem

(2) For the purposes of ensuring and securing compliance with this Act and the regulations under this Act, the Minister may demand in writing from

(a) any person, syndicate, trust or corporation; and

(b) any agent or official of any person, syndicate, trust or corporation, that is or may become a third party, the production, including the production on oath or solemn affirmation, of any books, letters, accounts, invoices, financial or other statements or any other document.

Compliance

(3) The Minister may specify a reasonable time within which a demand under this section shall be complied with, and every person to whom a demand is made shall comply with the demand within the specified time. 1988, c.24, s.19.
