Copy to Council	(2) The secretary-treasurer shall, on receiving a complaint under subsection (1), immediately send a copy to the president of the Council who shall, if he considers the matter to be urgent, call a special meeting of the Council for the purpose of evaluating the complaint.
Evaluation	(3) If no special meeting is called, the complaint shall be evaluated at the next regular meeting of the Council.

(4) If the president discovers at any time in the complaints and discipline processes that the complaint places himself or any other member of the Council in a conflict-of-interest position, he shall call a special meeting of the Association to appoint a Complaints and Discipline Committee in accordance with the bylaws of the Association and confer the matter and all powers related to the process to this committee.

Conflict of interest

(5) The Council or the Complaints and Discipline Committee, as the case may be, shall, after evaluating the complaint, decide that

Decisions of Council or Committee

- (a) the complaint requires no further investigation;
- (b) a hearing is warranted; or
- (c) such other resolution is appropriate in the circumstances including mediation, conciliation or other alternative dispute resolution procedures, and order
  - (i) that such resolution be undertaken by the complainant and the subject of the complaint, and
  - (ii) what procedures are to be followed in such a case.

(6) If the Council or the Complaints and Discipline Committee decides that a hearing is warranted, it shall give at least 14 days' notice of the meeting at which the complaint is to be heard to the member of the Association who is the subject of the complaint.

Notice of evaluation

(7) The member of the Association shall have the right to be present with counsel and to cross-examine all witnesses called and produce evidence in his defence.

Right to be heard

(8) Where the member of the Association who is the subject of the complaint does not appear at the hearing either by himself or with counsel, the Council or the Complaints and Discipline Committee may proceed to hear the complaint in his absence.

Absent member

(9) After the hearing, the Council or the Complaints and Discipline Committee shall either

Committee's decisions

- (a) dismiss the complaint; or
- (b) subject to any measures it may take under subsection (10), uphold the complaint.

(10) If the complaint is upheld, the Council or the Complaints and Discipline Committee may

Where complaint upheld

- (a) order re-education or other rehabilitative measures for the member;
- (b) ask for the voluntary surrender of the member's license;
- (c) after the hearing referred to in section 13, suspend or revoke the member's license where it finds that the member is guilty of

- (i) gross negligence, incompetence or fraud in the performance of his duties as a land surveyor,
- (ii) knowingly certifying a plan not in compliance with the bylaws of the Association, or
- (iii) certifying as his own plan or report of a survey when the survey was not made by him or under his supervision; or
- (d) order a fine in lieu of or in addition to the other sanctions under this subsection. 2001,c.10,s.12.

HEARING ON SUSPENSION OR REVOCATION OF LICENSES

- Hearing 13. (1) The Council or the Complaints and Discipline Committee shall not suspend or revoke a license of a member of the Association under clause (12)(10)(c) unless the member has been given at least 30 days' notice in writing of the findings referred to in that clause and of the time and place they will be considered.
- Consideration of findings (2) After notice has been given under subsection (1), the findings will be considered by the Council or the Complaints and Discipline Committee which may hear evidence under oath.
- Right to be heard (3) When the Council or the Complaints and Discipline Committee considers the findings, the member shall be entitled to be heard and to be represented by counsel.
- Notice (4) The Council or the Complaints and Discipline Committee shall serve notice on the person that his license has been suspended or revoked and the suspension or revocation shall take effect at that time.
- Reinstatement (5) A majority of the members of the Council or the Complaints and Discipline Committee may reinstate the license where
  - (a) it is satisfied that the grounds leading to the suspension or revocation of the license have ceased to exist and the person is competent and fit to resume practise as a land surveyor; and
  - (b) the person shows proof that he has paid the reinstatement fee provided in the bylaws of the Association and possesses a certificate. 2001,c.10,s.13.

APPEAL

- Appeal of license suspension or revocation 14. (1) A person whose license has been suspended or revoked under sections 12 and 13 may appeal the suspension or revocation to a judge of the Supreme Court by filing a notice of appeal with the court and serving a copy of it on the Council or on the Complaints and Discipline Committee, as the case may be, no later than 30 days after the date the notice of the suspension or revocation was served on the person.

(2) The judge hearing the appeal may rehear the matter and hear new evidence and may make such order or give such direction as to the suspension or revocation of the license and as to the costs of the appeal as to the judge seems just. 2001,c.10,s.14. Decision of court
