2. (1) The Minister shall, in accordance with the regulations, provide social assistance to persons in need.

(2) Social assistance may be provided, in accordance with the regulations, to an applicant as
   (a) emergency assistance for a period not exceeding one month;
   (b) short-term assistance for a period of less than four consecutive months;
   (c) long-term assistance for a period of four or more consecutive months; or
(d) special assistance.

(3) The Minister may provide social assistance to an applicant who is not a person in need in accordance with the regulations. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. W-4, s.2; 2001, c.19, s.3.

3. The Minister may
   (a) plan, develop, operate and manage any project or enterprise that has as its object to render recipients of assistance capable of self-support;
   (b) make grants to any organization, group or body of citizens for the purpose of providing assistance to persons in need or likely to become in need;
   (c) construct or acquire, maintain and operate residential institutions;
   (d) sponsor, develop, or operate community development services;
   (e) enter into agreements with agencies or other persons for the provision of social services in the province;
   (f) approve residential institutions in the province for the purposes of this Act;
   (g) provide for such other matters as he or she considers necessary to attain the purposes of this Act. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. W-4, s.3; 2001, c.19, s.4; 2005, c.53, s.2.

4. The Minister may with the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council enter into agreements with the Government of Canada or with the government of any province or territory respecting any matter within the scope and ambit of this Act or prescribed by the regulations. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. W-4, s.4; 2001, c.19, s.5.

4.1 (1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may establish, and always had the power to establish, categories and rates of assistance that may be granted under this Act.

   (2) Notice of the rates and changes in the rates of financial assistance established by the Lieutenant Governor in Council shall be published in the Royal Gazette. 2001, c.19, s.6.

4.2 The Minister may delegate to an employee of the department specified powers and duties of the Minister under this Act or the regulations. 2001, c.19, s.6; 2005, c.53, s.3.

4.3 Repealed by 2005, c.53, s.4. 2001, c.19, s.6; 2005, c.53, s.4.

4.4 (1) The Minister shall appoint a Director of Social Assistance who shall be an employee of the department.
(2) Where the Director appointed pursuant to this section is absent or there is a vacancy in the office of the Director, the power and duties of the Director shall be exercised and performed by such employees of the department as the Minister may designate.

(3) The Director appointed under this section shall provide advice and assistance to the Minister with respect to
(a) the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this Act respecting the determination of who a person in need is and the calculation of social assistance that may be provided, in accordance with the regulations; and
(b) the initiation of preventive and rehabilitative measures to ensure that
(i) alternatives to financial assistance are provided to applicants to assist them to build or attain economic self-sufficiency, including work or job incentives,
(ii) all applicants avail themselves of opportunities to build or regain economic self-sufficiency, and
(iii) appropriate resources or services are provided to those applicants who require long-term social assistance to assist growth toward economic self-sufficiency.

(4) Repealed by 2005,c.53,s.5.

(5) Subject to the approval of the Minister, the Director shall establish administrative procedures, controls, safeguards and written policies for the more effective and efficient administration of this Act and the regulations.

(6) Where administrative procedures, controls, safeguards or written policies have been established pursuant to this section, all persons engaged in the administration of this Act or the regulations and all applicants for social assistance are bound thereby as if the administrative procedures, controls, safeguards or written policies were set forth in the regulations.

(7) Where there is a conflict or inconsistency between a regulation made under this Act and an administrative procedure, control, safeguard or written policy made pursuant to subsection (5), the regulations shall prevail.

(8) The Director shall
(a) oversee the operation and delivery of social assistance under this Act;
(b) monitor and evaluate service delivery under this Act;
5. (1) There is established a Social Assistance Appeal Board composed of not less than seven and not more than nine members with some relevant experience in human services, appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council as follows:

(a) at least two members shall be from each of the provincial counties;
(b) at least one member shall be a former recipient of welfare assistance or social assistance;
(c) at least one member shall be fluent in French and English.

(2) The Lieutenant Governor in Council shall appoint the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the Board from among its members.

(3) The term of office for the members of the Board shall be three years and members may be re-appointed, provided that a member may not serve more than two consecutive terms.

(4) Subject to the regulations, the Board shall establish its own rules of procedure.

(5) Board members shall receive such remuneration and be entitled to be reimbursed for such expenses as the Minister may determine.

(6) Notwithstanding clause (1)(a), the term of office of persons who are members of the Social Assistance Appeal Board on the date this subsection comes into force shall continue for a period of three years from the date of their appointment to the Board.

5.1 (1) A person who is dissatisfied with a decision respecting the provision of financial assistance under this Act may appeal the decision by notice to the chairperson of the Board not later than 30 days from the date the decision was made known to the person.

(2) The Board may confirm or vary a decision appealed from, but may not render a decision which has the effect of providing more social assistance than is otherwise possible under this Act and the regulations.

(3) Except where a right of review is prescribed by the regulations, a decision by the Board is final and binding upon the parties and the Board may not
(a) reconsider any matter; or
(b) rescind, alter or amend any decision or order made by it.
2001,c.19,s.8.

6. (1) The Minister, the Director and social assistance agencies may maintain records containing information gathered in the administration of this Act.

(2) Subject to this section and the regulations, information contained in a record may be disclosed where
(a) the disclosure is with the written consent of the person to whom it pertains;
(b) the disclosure is made for the purposes of a criminal investigation or criminal proceedings;
(c) the disclosure is made for the purposes of an investigation or court proceedings under this Act;
(d) the disclosure is made to a person or organization providing social assistance services in this province or in another jurisdiction in Canada;
(e) the information is provided to a person or organization for the purposes of maintaining it in information systems to be used for the administration of this Act;
(f) the disclosure is an aggregate of information which does not identify particular persons; or
(g) the disclosure is, in the opinion of the Minister, essential for the administration of this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the disclosure of information shall be refused or limited where
(a) may jeopardize a criminal investigation or an investigation under this Act; or
(b) is prohibited by law.

(4) Information concerning the dates on which, and the amounts of, social assistance that is provided to an applicant may be disclosed or published in statistical form for audit, accreditation or budgetary purposes provided that information identifying the applicant is not revealed.

(5) No person shall
(a) publish information that is disclosed under this Act, except in accordance with the purposes and the conditions which govern the disclosure; or
(b) disclose information obtained pursuant to this Act except as permitted by this Act or the regulations. R.S.P.E.I. 1974,Cap.W-4,s.6; 1993,c.30,s.61; 2001,c.19,s.9; 2005,c.53,s.7.
6.1 (1) The Minister, in accordance with the regulations, may require a recipient of social assistance
   (a) to repay financial assistance; and
   (b) to pay fees, rates or charges to cover costs of providing special assistance, and all or part of the amount required to be paid or repaid is a debt due by the recipient to the government, which may be recovered by the Minister from the person or the person’s estate.

(2) Where a person has obtained social assistance
   (a) through misrepresentation, deceit, fraud or failure to disclose information; or
   (b) in excess of amounts permitted by this Act and the regulations, all or part of the social assistance obtained is a debt due by the person to the government, which may be recovered by the Minister from the person or the person’s estate.

(3) Subsection (2) applies whether or not the person intended to obtain social assistance in the manner or circumstances described by that subsection, and whether or not the payment was made before the coming into force of this section.

(4) Subject to the regulations, the Minister may, where there is a debt due pursuant to subsections (1) or (2)
   (a) enter into agreements for repayment;
   (b) issue a certificate stating the amount owing and the name of the debtor and serve it on the debtor or the debtor’s estate, as applicable; or
   (c) recommend the cancellation, discharge or write-off of the debt in accordance with the Financial Administration Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. F-9.

(5) A certificate issued pursuant to subsection (4)
   (a) may be filed with the Registrar of the Supreme Court, 30 days after service on the debtor; and
   (b) after filing, has the same force and effect as a judgment filed pursuant to the Judgment and Execution Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. J-2. 2001,c.19,s.10; 2005,c.53,s.8.

7. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations respecting any matter within the scope and ambit of this Act and without limiting the generality thereof
   (a) respecting applications for social assistance, including information and verification of information, eligibility requirements, tests, standards and procedures and all other matters regarding the provision of social assistance to applicants;
(b) prescribing procedures for the consideration of information and the granting of social assistance;
(c) repealed by 2001,c.19,s.11;
(d) providing for the investigation of applications in order to determine the eligibility of applicants;
(e) respecting financial resources and the manner in which they are considered in determining eligibility for social assistance;
(f) respecting kinds of and amounts of social assistance that may be granted to an applicant and the manner and time in which social assistance may be given;
(g) prescribing the circumstances and conditions under which social assistance is required to be re-assessed, changed or revoked;
(h) repealed by 2001,c.19,s.11;
(i) respecting the payment of social assistance to persons other than an applicant on behalf of an applicant;
(i.1) respecting disclosure of information gathered in the administration of this Act, and the protection of privacy;
(j) prescribing the forms to be used under this Act;
(k) respecting the approval of residential institutions and the granting of social assistance to residents of them;
(k.1) respecting all aspects of the granting of social assistance by authorized agencies under this Act;
(k.2) respecting the recovery of overpayments of social assistance and repayment of moneys granted or paid under this Act;
(l) defining words, phrases or terms for which no definition is given in the Act;
(m) repealed by 2001,c.19,s.11;
(n) repealed by 2001,c.19,s.11;
(o) respecting audits of social assistance provided under this Act;
(p) respecting the administration of the Act;
(q) respecting the payment of moneys under the Act;
(r) repealed by 2001,c.19,s.11;
(s) providing for the operation of the Social Assistance Appeal Board, and its jurisdiction and powers;
(t) respecting social assistance agencies, their authorization and responsibilities under this Act and the regulations;
(u) generally, for the better administration of this Act.
R.S.P.E.I. 1974,Cap.W-4,s.7; 1993,c.30,s.61; 2000(2nd),c.3,s.62; 2001,c.19,s.11.

8. Every person who knowingly
(a) makes a false or misleading statement in any application or report under this Act or makes any application or report that by reason of any non-disclosure of facts is false or misleading;
(b) provides any person employed in the administration or enforcement of this Act with any statement or information that is false in any material part;
(c) cashes any cheque for an assistance to which the person is not entitled;
(d) fails to report that the circumstances which caused the person to qualify for assistance have changed;
(e) contravenes section 6 by communicating or allowing to be communicated to any person privileged information or by allowing any person to inspect or have access to any statement or other writing containing any such information;
(f) persistently refuses or neglects to maintain any other person for whose maintenance the person is liable, is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to both. R.S.P.E.I. 1974,Cap.W-4,s.8; 2001,c.19,s.12.

9. (1) No action shall be brought against any person for anything done or not done by that person in good faith in the performance or intended performance of, or in the exercise of the person’s powers or duties under this Act or the regulations.

(2) A person who makes a report, provides information or who does anything to assist in an investigation carried out by the Director is not liable to any civil action in respect of providing such information or assistance.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to a person who knowingly makes a report or provides information that is false or misleading. R.S.P.E.I. 1974,Cap.W-4,s.9; 2001,c.19,s.13; 2005,c.53,s.9.

11. All agreements in effect as of the coming into force of this section between an applicant and a regional authority under this Act shall be deemed to be an agreement between the applicant and the Minister under this Act. 2001,c.19,s.15; 2005,c.53,s.10.
