

East Prince Transition and Support Services

The first step to take is to reach out and ask for help.

Established in 1986, we are dedicated to the elimination of family violence and its consequences in East Prince, PEI. The committee meets monthly to discuss issues, identify needs and advocate for services around family violence and its prevention.

If you are a woman in an abusive relationship there is help for you and your children. If your partner is abusive in any of the following ways please give us a call.

- * physically
- * sexually
- * emotionally
- * social isolation abuse

Contact us if you would like:

1. more information
2. to join the family violence committee
3. to arrange for a guest speaker for your group or business
4. to make a donation to this worthwhile, community based, non-profit service
