Labour Relations Training for Managers and Supervisors

A key component of the labour relations contract that the Public Service Commission has with McInnes Cooper is for providing training to management staff.

The following courses are being offered for the 2014-2015 year:

- Managing the Collective Agreement
- Social Media and Privacy in the Workplace
- Performance Management and Discipline: Part 1
- Performance Management and Discipline: Part 2
- Workplace Conflict and Investigation
- Employee Illness & Absenteeism/Duty to Accommodate

Civil managers and supervisors are invited to register by going to the training registration website: http://mcclientpd.gosignmeup.com/. On the site you will find the courses listed above. Select the 'Civil' link and a brief description of course content, location, and presenter(s) is provided for consideration. For step-by-step registration instructions, follow the link provided on the home page above the ‘Civil’ link.

As in past years, employees must request permission to attend these sessions from their supervisor in advance of registering. Following an employee’s registration, the employee and their supervisor will receive an email confirmation.

If you have any questions, please contact your departmental Human Resource Manager.
