

Lennox Island Family Violence Prevention Program

Provides counseling and assistance to families affected by violence, focusing on education and prevention.

Services include counseling, support and assistance to families through Community Activities, including, sessions on the different aspect of family violence, support group, community events, newsletter, children's activities, etc.

Information and materials concerning Family Violence Prevention are available.

Location

Lennox Island

For More Information

Lennox Island Health Centre

PO Box 135

Lennox Island, PE

C0B 1P0

Telephone: (902) 831-2711