

WHAT I LEARNED FROM.... STORIES FOR ALL GENERATIONS

2015 PEI Intergeneration Week Story Contest

The PEI Seniors' Secretariat believes that people of all ages can develop greater respect and appreciation for community members when they share their stories.

What about you? What have you learned from someone older or younger than yourself?

Share a story or poem about a grandparent, parent, child, neighbour or friend.

Seniors'
Secretariat
— of Prince Edward Island —

Tell us a story or poem about a life lesson you learned from someone

With characters from 2 or more generations

750 words or less

Enter by August 1 for your chance to win prizes!

Learn more at www.gov.pe.ca/seniors

ASK US ABOUT THE CONTEST

Call: 1-866-770-0588

Email: seniors@gov.pe.ca

Fax: 902-894-0242

Drop in: Community Services and Seniors, 2nd Floor Jones Building, 11 Kent Street