

Anti-Racism Training

From the Centre for Race and Culture

Coming to Prince Edward Island!

June 11-14, 2012 | Rodd Charlottetown | Cost: $300

This course explores racism in Canada and understanding the impacts of racism individually, institutionally and systemically. The education is interactive and experiential, allowing participants to practice applying fundamental concepts and tools. Participants will learn how to identify racism and learn strategies and tools for addressing it to create change in their relationships, workplaces and society.

This comprehensive and in-depth Anti-Racism training addresses the following topics:

- Roots of racism and our contemporary realities
- Understanding how racism affects our lives
- Breaking down systemic racism
- Moving towards an inclusive society

CENTRE FOR RACE AND CULTURE

The Centre for Race and Culture
www.cfrac.com

Since 1993 the Centre for Race and Culture has been working throughout Canada with the goal of eliminating racism and creating a more inclusive society.

This is an incredible, challenging, perspective-altering workshop . . . Past Participant

For more information and to register,
please contact:

Schedule

June 11th: 1:00 pm - 5:30 pm

June 12th: 9:00 am - 5:00 pm

June 13th: 9:00 am - 5:00 pm

June 14th: 8:00 am - 12:30 pm

PEI ASSOCIATION FOR NEWCOMERS TO CANADA

Lisa Dollar
(902) 628-6009
lisad@peianc.com

Funded by

Citizenship and Immigration Canada

Citoyenneté et
Immigration Canada

