REMINDER DETAILS

1) Forum “In Focus: Building a more inclusive community for people with disabilities” -a community awareness forum about the issues of violence and access to health care and how they affect Islanders with disabilities

Thursday, April 11th, 2013 1:00 to 4:00 pm

Murphy's Community Centre, 200 Richmond Street, Charlottetown

The forum will be a chance to:

- hear from people with disabilities about their experiences,
- better understand the challenges men and women with disabilities face in getting access to services and supports to help them deal with issues of violence,
- become more aware of the issues men and women with disabilities face in getting access to health care, and
- think about strategies to address barriers and support Islanders with disabilities to be safe and healthy and included in their communities.

Who should come?

- ✓ People with disabilities or Deaf people who are affected by or are interested in the issues of violence, safety and access to health care,
- ✓ Service providers who are involved in the prevention of and response to violence and abuse,
- ✓ Those who work in the fields of health care, including cancer screening and prevention,
- ✓ Any member of the community!

Light refreshments will be served.

Please register by emailing cooperinstitute@eastlink.ca, or by calling Ann Wheatley at Cooper Institute, 894-4573 (toll free:1-877-894-4573).

Some support is available for transportation and child and elder care - contact Cooper Institute if this is something you need.

The awareness forum is sponsored by DisAbled Women's Network (DAWN) - Réseau d'action de femmes handicapées(RAHF), the Canadian Association for Community Living (CACL), the PEI Association for Community Living (PEIACL) and Cooper Institute.

2) CLIA's FREE Course The Best Interests of the Children in Custody and Access – NEW DATES

Community Legal Information Association (CLIA) is offering a FREE two- part course for people who are dealing with a custody and access dispute.

Clients learn:

- What you can expect if you have to go to court to resolve a custody and access dispute.
- How the ‘best interests of the children’ can be met.
- Ways to resolve your dispute outside of court.

This course is led by a volunteer family law lawyer, and a CLIA staff person. Please pass this information along to friends, family or clients who are experiencing difficulties coming to a custody and access agreement. Professionals who work with clients in this area are also welcome.

Spring Dates:

April 30th and May 7th, 6:00pm - 8:00pm (Shannon Farrell, McInnes Cooper)

June 4th and 5th, 6:00pm - 8:00pm (Cathy Chaisson, Legal Aid)
