We could not have completed this work without the support of many Newcomer volunteers, who helped us with translation, editing and reviews. Thank you! We are also grateful for financial support from the Interministerial Women's Secretariat and the Law Foundation of PEI. Finally, we want to acknowledge that this document draws from the PLEISNB publication called Family Law Matters For Immigrants in New Brunswick. We used PLEIS-NB material with permission.

4) You Are Not Alone video series introduces services of PEI Family Violence Prevention Services

PEI FVPS is very happy to introduce the You Are Not Alone video series. You Are Not Alone is a video series that introduces the services available through Anderson House and PEI Family Violence Prevention Services. These videos have been translated into five languages (Arabic, Farsi, French, Mandarin, and Spanish) to improve access of this information. Downloadable scripts are available for the hearing impaired. Also with each video is a checklist of what the shelter provides and what you should bring with you if you come to stay. We hope these videos will serve as a resource to encourage people to engage with our services.

<http://www.fvps.ca/youarenotalone/> Also see attached brochure.

This project has been made possible through a grant from the Law Foundation of Prince Edward Island. French translation provided in kind through PEI Translation Services.

5) Outside of the Shadows: A project on criminal harassment in Canada

The project was created by award winning women’s rights advocate, Julie S. Lalonde, who was stalked for over a decade. Thanks to the generosity of 87 individual donors, she partnered with the artist Ambivalently Yours to create a public service announcement to raise awareness of the trauma of stalking and provide practical advice for victims and their allies. English and French versions are available at <https://outsideoftheshadows.ca/>

Her hope is that this project will expand and become a clearinghouse of information on criminal harassment in Canada with practical tips and resources.

6) Purple Ribbon Amnesty

Do you have purple ribbons and/or bookmarks that haven’t been used? Please feel welcome to return them to the Advisory Council with no judgement, no shame, only appreciation. We will reuse and recycle them for our 2018-2019 Campaign Against Violence Against Women:
