

2016 Sisters in Spirit Vigil, Prince Edward Island, October 4

"A Movement for Social Change"

Honouring the lives of Murdered & Missing Aboriginal Women & Girls. Sisters In Spirit vigils are an opportunity to support grieving families, and for healing. On October 4th, Sisters in Spirit Vigils will be happening in different areas across Canada and the World.

Tuesday, October 4, 2016

11:30am - 1:30pm

Confederation Landing Park

2 Great George Street

Charlottetown, PE

Here's our Agenda for what's happening here in PEI:

11:30am - Gathering for Memorial at Confederation Landing, Charlottetown, PEI Smudge & Prayer - Elder

12:00pm - Begin the "Honour Walk" on the Oval with Mi'kmaq Honour Song

Feel free to bring your drums, signs, candles, red dresses, etc.

12:20pm - Opening Welcome - Master of Ceremonies

12:25pm - Opening Remarks and Joint Statement - Aboriginal Women's Association of PEI President Judy Clark

12:30pm - Speakers Invited:

- PEI Premier or Designate
- Chief Matilda Ramjattan of Lennox Island First Nation
- Chief Brian Francis of Abegweit First Nation
- President & Chief Lisa Cooper of Native Council of Prince Edward Island
- Deputy Mayor Mike Duffy - City of Charlottetown
- RCMP Superintendent
- PEI Status of Women

1:00pm - MOMENT OF SILENCE

- Followed by the "Strong Woman Song" - Shared by Samantha Lewis (AWAPEI)

1:25pm - Closing Prayer - Elder

Please share this event with your circles. Everyone's Welcome.

Feel free to bring your drums, signs, candles, red dresses, etc.

For more information on Sister's in Spirit Vigil see this website.

Local event Facebook page