

WELCOME TO PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND'S NEW FAMILY MEDICINE RESIDENTS

Effective July 2014, five new family medicine residents have arrived in PEI to begin the two year Dalhousie/PEI Family Medicine Residency Program. Residents are physicians who are licensed to practice medicine. They participate in a variety of activities during the program such as providing patient care in family medicine clinics, doing clinical rotations within the hospital in specialty areas of medicine, conducting research, and participating in academic seminars.

Name: Lori Cheverie

Medical School: Memorial University of Newfoundland
Hometown: Souris, PEI

Name: Aimee MacDonald

Medical School: Dalhousie University
Hometown: Souris, PEI

Name: Jaclyn O'Brien

Medical School: University of Ottawa
Hometown: Charlottetown, PEI

Name: Joanne Reid

Medical School: Dalhousie University
Hometown: Summerside, PEI

Name: Laura Robinson

Medical School: Saba University School of Medicine
Hometown: Charlottetown, PEI

