2013 is a big year for the Women's Institute, celebrating its 100th anniversary. This is the 89th anniversary for the Women's Institute Handcrafts, Horticulture and Arts Show at the Provincial Exhibition. Some changes this year include expanding the Holiday Themes Class, changes in Foods Class with emphasis on nutrition and showcasing PEI products, adding a special class for Centennial and moving all of the youth sections to a new Youth Class. Changes made throughout the book are italicized. In order to encourage family entries, we have a new "It's a Family Tradition" prize and a special cup cake decorating activity planned for Saturday, August 10, 1 pm - 4 pm.

I encourage anyone interested in sharing your craft with others to think of applying for the Premier's Craft Education Award. It is a great opportunity to further your training in your chosen craft. All the details are on pages 7-8.

Make sure you read and follow the general information and take note of any changes in the Class/Sections you are entering. We want to ensure things run smoothly and no one is disappointed. Pay particular attention to the deadlines and the need to enter in advance.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the volunteers, judges, exhibitors and special prize sponsors - you are the reason that the Women's Institute Handcrafts, Horticulture and Arts Show at Old Home Week is such a great success every year. It is not necessary to be a WI member to be an exhibitor or volunteer. If you would like to know more, contact information is on the previous page.

I encourage your participation so we can continue this tradition of showcasing our talents. Please encourage your friends and neighbours to enter and come to the 2013 Show.

Sincerely,

Carol Connick
