

Participate in PEI Decision-making Process

1. Public request for applications by Participate in PEI. Deadline will normally be 2-3 weeks from publication.
2. Applications received at Executive Council Office (ECO) and forwarded to Department. To ensure all applications are received, this will take approximately 1 week after deadline.
3. Department reviews applications, consults stakeholders and forward recommendation to ECO. This stage will take at least 2 weeks to review and submit Cabinet Memo.
4. Cabinet reviews recommendations and nominates Board. It may take 2-4 weeks to get onto the Cabinet Agenda and to get dealt with.
5. Nominee accepts or declines. Once a Decision is issued, Department staff contact all Nominees, which will take 1-2 weeks.
6. Order in Council issued. Names of successful applicants published in the Royal Gazette. This process can take 2-4 weeks, normally 2 weeks.
