Welcome to Maplewood

On behalf of our staff, I warmly welcome you to Maplewood Manor.

Our staff, physicians and volunteers are dedicated to providing you with quality personalized service in an environment recognizing and embracing comfort, respect, dignity and the importance of relationships. Our facility has several departments designed for this purpose. In addition to the 48 residential and respite based beds, Maplewood also delivers various services to the broader community.

Since 1967, the facility has proudly served as a home for the region. Over the years, a lot has changed. Technology has evolved, new treatments and services have emerged. Even our thinking as to what constitutes "health" has shifted. As we look towards the future, we can expect further changes still. But regardless of what they are, ultimately the underlying principle remains the same as it always has: namely doing what is in the best interests of those we serve, At Maplewood, this means our focus and our actions are directed by your needs and wishes.

This is your home and we are here for you. Please help us serve you by providing us with your comments and suggestions, We will be pleased to hear them as your happiness is our satisfaction.

Sincerely

Administration

We recognize that when an individual can no longer cope in his/her environment because of illness, physical disability, etc. alternate plans must be considered by the individual and/or the family. Those who choose to move from their home to a nursing home often experience some emotional stress. They leave behind family, friends, community and to some degree, a sense of independence.

This program which we refer to as the "RESIDENTS ORIENTATION PROGRAM" has been developed with these concerns in mind, based on the philosophy of Maplewood Manor.

Mission Statement

Maplewood exists to deliver Safe Quality Health Care in collaboration with the residents, their families and other disciplines to support and promote the best possible Person Center Care to our residents. To help Residents to maintain a sense of Self Worth and their Independence we will provide opportunity and encouragement to make informed decisions regarding their care and respect their wishes.

Philosophy

Maplewood recognizes that each person is an unique individual with the right to live a dignified life as a member of society. An individual with worth, self esteem, needs and the right to self determination.

We recognize that aging is a natural, progressive and inevitable process, experienced by all, affecting each person differently.

Using a team approach, we endeavor to meet psychosocial, physical and spiritual needs of Residents while encouraging independence and focusing on potential not limitations. We recognize the value of promoting wellness through Supportive Therapy and assisting aging individuals to maintain their dignity and self respect.

We believe in the concept of person centered care delivered by qualified caring personnel, provided in a home like atmosphere. Person centered care is planned on the basis of the Residents individual holistic needs. We value the involvement of each Resident and family in the planning of care and provide them with the guidance and information necessary to meet their special needs.

We believe that death is a natural part of the life cycle and that the dying individual has the right to support and understanding so they may die with dignity.

We recognize that the care of each Resident is a sacred trust and our first responsibility, therefore we treat each person with Compassion, Fairness, Respect and Dignity.

Our Orientation program is a three phase program;

1. Pre - Admission
2. Admission
3. Post - Admission

Admission

Resident Care Planning - We encourage you to be as active as possible in the planning and delivery of your care. Your family are also encouraged to participate in your care plan, which is reviewed three times per year. A letter will be sent to the next of kin notifying them of the date and time for your care plan and inviting their participation.

Key Worker - When a person has been approved by the Long Term Care Admissions Committee for admission to Maplewood , the first contact with the nursing department will be with a nursing staff member known as a “Key Worker”. The Resident Orientation Program or “Key Worker” program was developed to lessen the anxiety and concern often experienced by an individual when they are going to live in a new environment. The Key Worker visits the person and their family at their home prior to admission to answer any concerns or questions and gather information which will help staff prepare for that persons admission. The Key Worker will arrange for a pre-admission visit and tour of Maplewood if the person wishes and will make arrangements for clothing and personal items to be brought to Maplewood prior to admission The Key Worker or the Nurse in Charge will meet you at Maplewood on the day of admission to introduce you and your family to staff, other residents, and the facility. Key Workers are members of the Maplewood staff and volunteer for the program.

Family - Family ties are a valuable priority for the residents and we encourage the continuation of family and community involvement. If this is to be home for the residents, then family and friends must feel “at home” as well. Come as often as you can and feel free to attend programs and activities that are going on while you are here. There is some space available for use by families; please check with nursing or front office staff if you need to book a space.
