(a) the amendment, in the opinion of the Superintendent, is of a technical nature and will not substantially affect the pension benefits, rights or obligations of a member or former member or a person entitled to payments from the pension fund;

(b) the amendment has been agreed to by a trade union that represents the members; or

(c) the amendment is in respect of a multi-employer pension plan established pursuant to a collective agreement or a trust agreement.

Notice required
where members represented by a trade union

(5) Where a proposed amendment affects members or former members represented by a trade union that is a party to a collective agreement filed as the document that creates or supports a pension plan, the administrator shall transmit to the trade union the written notice referred to in subsection (1).

Annual statement

34. The administrator of a pension plan shall transmit annually to each member a written statement containing the prescribed information in respect of the pension plan, the member's pension benefits and any ancillary benefits.

Information upon ceasing to be member

35. (1) Where a member of a pension plan terminates employment with the employer or otherwise ceases to be a member, the administrator of the pension plan shall give to the member, or to any other person who as a result becomes entitled to a payment under the pension plan, a written statement setting out the prescribed information in respect of the benefits, rights and obligations of the member or other person.

(2) Subsection (1) applies in respect of a multi-employer pension plan where a member of such a pension plan ceases to be a member, but does not apply where a member terminates employment with an employer but continues to be a member.

Application of
subsection (1)

36. (1) On written request, the administrator of a pension plan shall make available the prescribed documents and information in respect of the pension plan for inspection without charge by

Persons entitled to information

- (a) a member;
- (b) a former member;
- (c) the spouse of a member or former member;
- (d) any other person entitled to pension benefits under the pension plan;
- (e) an agent authorized in writing by a person referred to in clause (a), (b), (c), (d), (g) or (h);
- (f) a representative of a trade union that represents members of the pension plan;
- (g) an employer;
- (h) a person required to make contributions under a pension plan on behalf of an employer; or
- (i) any other prescribed person.

(2) The administrator shall make the prescribed documents and information available,

Place of inspection

- (a) for a member, at the premises of the employer where the member is employed;
- (b) for a former member, at the premises where the former member was employed; or
- (c) for a member, former member or any other person, at such other location as may be agreed upon by the administrator and the member, former member or other person making the request.

(3) The administrator shall permit the person making the inspection to make extracts from or to copy the prescribed documents and information.

Extracts or copies

(4) On request, the administrator shall provide the person making the inspection with copies of any of the prescribed documents or information upon payment to the administrator of a reasonable fee.

Idem

(5) A member, former member, a spouse, another person, an agent of any of them, or a trade union by a representative, is entitled to make an inspection pursuant to subsection (1) not more than once in a calendar year.

Limitation

Inspection of plan documents

37. Any person mentioned in subsection 36(1) and the administrator of a pension plan are entitled to inspect, at the offices of the Superintendent during business hours of the Superintendent, the documents that comprise the pension plan and such other prescribed documents as are filed in respect of the pension plan, and are entitled to copies of the documents upon payment of the prescribed fees.

MEMBERSHIP

Eligibility and length of employment

38. (1) Every employee of a prescribed class of employees for whom a pension plan is established is eligible to be a member of the pension plan.

Full time employment

(2) An employee in a prescribed class of employees for whom a pension plan is maintained is entitled to become a member of the pension plan upon application at any time after completing twenty-four months, or such lesser time as the pension plan provides, of continuous full-time employment.

Part-time employment

(3) A pension plan may require not more than twenty-four months of less than full-time continuous employment with the employer with the lesser of

- (a) earnings of not less than thirty-five per cent of the year's maximum pensionable earnings; or
- (b) seven hundred hours of employment with the employer, in each of two consecutive calendar years immediately prior to membership in the pension plan, or such equivalent basis as is approved by the Superintendent, as a condition precedent to membership.

Multi-employer pension plan

(4) A multi-employer pension plan may require not more than the lesser of

- (a) earnings of not less than thirty-five per cent of the year's maximum pensionable earnings with one or more participating employers; or
- (b) seven hundred hours of employment with one or more participating employers, in each of the two consecutive calendar years immediately before the year in which membership is applied for, or such equivalent basis as is approved by the Superintendent, as a condition precedent to membership in the multi-employer pension plan.

Approval

(5) The Superintendent may give the approval mentioned in subsection (3) or (4) if the Superintendent is of the opinion that the basis is equivalent in the circumstances to the earnings mentioned in the subsection.

39. An employee who is a member of a pension plan shall continue as a member of that plan so long as the employee's employment, in respect of which the pension plan is maintained, continues.

Continuation as member of plan

40. A member of a pension plan who is employed continuously on a less than full-time basis does not cease to be a member by reason only that the member has earnings of less than thirty-five per cent of the year's maximum pensionable earnings in a calendar year or is employed for fewer than seven hundred hours in a calendar year.

Drop in part-time employment

41. (1) Where there is a dispute as to whether or not an employee is a member of a class of employees for whom a pension plan is established or maintained, the Superintendent may, subject to section 90, by order require the administrator to accept the employee as a member.

Order to accept employee

(2) The Superintendent may make an order under subsection (1) if the Superintendent is of the opinion that, on the basis of the nature of the employment or of the terms of employment of the employee, the employee is a member of the class.

Basis or ground for order

42. An employer may establish or maintain a separate pension plan for employees employed in less than full-time continuous employment with the employer if the separate pension plan provides pension benefits and other benefits reasonably equivalent to those provided under the pension plan maintained by the employer for employees of the same class employed in full-time continuous employment.

Separate plan for part-time employees

RETIREMENT AND VESTING

43. (1) A member of a pension plan is entitled to a pension under the pension plan calculated in accordance with the benefit formula of the pension plan if

Pension entitlement and retirement date

- (a) the member's employment with the employer is terminated on or after the normal retirement date under the pension plan; and
- (b) the member was a member for a continuous period of at least twenty-four months on or after the operative date.

(2) The normal retirement date under a pension plan submitted for registration on or after the operative date shall not be later than one year after the attainment of sixty-five years of age.

Normal retirement date

(3) Every pension plan registered or submitted for registration before the operative date shall be deemed to specify a normal retirement date in respect of pension benefits that accrue on or after the operative date that is not later than one year after the attainment of sixty-five years of age, unless the pension plan specifies an earlier normal retirement date.

Transitional, deemed normal retirement date

Continuation after normal retirement date	(4) A member of a pension plan who continues to be employed by the employer after the normal retirement date, and who is not receiving a pension under the pension plan, has the right to continue to be a member of the pension plan to the date of termination of the employment and has the right to continue to accrue pension benefits calculated in accordance with the benefit and contribution formula of the pension plan to the date of termination of the employment to the maximum benefits allowed under the pension plan.
Deferred pension	44. (1) A member of a pension plan who <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) is a member on or after the operative date; (b) is a member for a continuous period of at least twenty-four months, counting time as a member both before and on and after the operative date; and (c) has terminated employment before reaching the normal retirement date under the pension plan, is entitled to a deferred pension equal to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (d) the pension benefit provided under the pension plan in respect of employment in the province or in a designated province on or after the operative date or on or after the qualification date if the qualification date is later than the operative date; (e) the pension benefit that results from any amendment to the pension plan on or after the operative date; and (f) the pension benefit under a new pension plan established on or after the operative date for members of the pension plan.
Application of subsection (1)	(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of benefits that result from additional voluntary contributions.
Termination of membership by member	45. (1) A person who is <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) a member of a multi-employer pension plan; (b) a member of a pension plan who is employed by the employer on a less than full-time basis; or (c) a member of a pension plan who has been laid off from employment by the employer, is entitled to terminate membership in the pension plan if no contributions are paid or are required to be paid to the pension fund by or on behalf of the member for twenty-four consecutive months or for such shorter period of time as is specified in the pension plan.
Effect of termination	(2) For the purpose of determining benefits under this Act, a person who terminates membership in a pension plan is deemed to have terminated employment.
Application of subsections (1) and (2)	(3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply if contributions are not paid or are not required to be paid because the person has become a member of another pension plan and there is a reciprocal transfer agreement respecting the two pension plans.

(4) For the purpose of determining entitlement to a deferred pension, a member of a multi-employer pension plan who terminates employment with a participating employer or an employer on whose behalf contributions are made under the pension plan is deemed not to have terminated employment until the member terminates membership in the pension plan.

Determination of entitlement to a deferred pension

(5) Where a member of a multi-employer pension plan is represented by a trade union that, in accordance with the Labour Act ceases to represent the member, and the member joins a different pension plan, the member is entitled to terminate membership in the first plan.

Termination where trade union ceases to represent member

(6) Subsection (5) does not apply where there is a reciprocal agreement respecting the two pension plans.

Application of subsection (5)

46. (1) Where an employer receives money from an employee pursuant to an arrangement that the employer will pay the money into a pension fund as the employee's contribution under the pension plan, the employer shall hold the money in trust for the employee until the employer pays the money into the pension fund.

Employee and employer contributions to be held in trust

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), money withheld by an employer, whether by payroll deduction or otherwise, from money payable to an employee is deemed to be money received by the employer from the employee.

Money deemed to be received by employer

(3) An employer who is required to pay contributions to a pension fund shall hold in trust for the beneficiaries of the pension plan an amount of money equal to the employer contributions due and not paid into the pension fund.

Amount employer to hold in trust

(4) Where a pension plan is wound up in whole or in part, an employer who is required to pay contributions to the pension fund shall hold in trust for the beneficiaries of the pension plan an amount of money equal to employer contributions accrued to the date of the wind up but not yet due under the plan or regulations.

Idem

(5) The administrator has a lien and charge on the assets of the employer in an amount equal to the amounts required to be held in trust pursuant to subsections (1), (3) and (4).

Lien and charge on assets of employer

(6) The lien referred to in subsection (5) is not a charge against a parcel registered pursuant to the Registry Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. R-10 until a certificate evidencing the lien has been recorded in the judgment roll.

Idem

Notice of lien	(7) The administrator may record a notice of the lien referred to in subsection (5) in the parcel register of any property owned by a person for whom or on account of whom the amounts are required to be held in trust pursuant to subsections (1), (3) and (4) to which the lien applies and shall thereupon serve that person with a copy of the lien and recording particulars.
Idem	(8) Upon satisfaction of the lien, including payment of the fees for recording the lien and the release, the administrator shall record a release of the lien in the parcel registers in which notice of the lien was recorded.
Employer to keep money held in trust separate and apart	(9) Money required by subsection (1), (3) or (4) to be held in trust shall be kept separate and apart from other money or property of the employer.
Application of subsections (1) to (9) to insurance companies	(10) Subsections (1) to (9) apply with such changes as are necessary in respect of money to be paid to an insurance company that guarantees pension benefits under a pension plan.

BENEFITS

Minimum commuted value	47. (1) Where the commuted value of a former member's deferred pension accrued before the operative date is less than the value of the contributions the former member was required to make under the pension plan prior to that date plus interest credited to the contributions, the former member is entitled to have the commuted value of the deferred pension increased so that the commuted value is equal to the value of the contributions and the interest.
Idem	(2) An increase in the value of the pension or deferred pension in respect of employment before the operative date resulting from an amendment to the pension plan made on or after the operative date maybe included in calculating the commuted value of the deferred pension for the purposes of subsection (1).
Maximum percentage of commuted value to be provided by former member's contributions	(3) A former member's contributions made on or after the operative date under a pension plan and the interest on the contributions shall not be used to provide more than fifty per cent of the commuted value of the pension or deferred pension in respect of the contributory benefit accrued after that date to which the former member is entitled under the pension plan on termination of membership or employment.
Termination payment, amount	(4) A former member referred to in subsection (3) is entitled upon termination of employment or membership to payment from the pension fund of the amount by which the former member's contributions under the pension plan made on or after the operative date, plus the interest on those contributions, exceed one-half of the commuted value of the former member's pension or deferred pension in respect of the contributory benefit accrued on or after the operative date.

(5) The following may be excluded when determining that part of the commuted value of a pension or deferred pension to which subsections (3) and (4) apply:

Benefits not included in determination of commuted value

- (a) defined contribution benefits;
- (b) benefits that result from additional voluntary contributions;
- (c) in the case of a multi-employer pension plan that permits a member who has not accrued maximum pension benefits permitted under the pension plan in a fiscal year of the pension plan to make contributions to increase the member's pension benefit to the maximum permitted for the fiscal year, benefits resulting from such contributions;
- (d) benefits that result from voluntary contributions for past service as defined in the regulations;
- (e) optional ancillary benefits; and
- (f) any other benefits prescribed for the purpose of this subsection.

(6) The following may be included by the administrator in calculating a member's contributory benefit for the purposes of subsection (3):

Benefits included in calculation of contributory benefit

- (a) ancillary benefits related to employment on or after the operative date;
- (b) increases to pension benefits and ancillary benefits related to employment before the date of the amendment resulting from an amendment to the pension plan made on or after the operative date, but that are not included in calculating commuted value under subsection (2);
- (c) pension benefits and ancillary benefits related to employment before the date of the establishment of the pension plan, in the case of a pension plan established on or after the operative date.

(7) The conversion of optional ancillary contributions to optional ancillary benefits shall be done pursuant to actuarial assumptions and methods that are appropriate and in accordance with accepted actuarial practice.

Conversion of optional ancillary contributions

(8) Where a member's accumulated optional ancillary contributions exceed the amount that can be converted to optional ancillary benefits upon retirement, termination, death or plan wind-up, the pension plan may provide for forfeiture of the unused portion.

Idem

48. (1) A pension plan may provide the following ancillary benefits:

Ancillary benefits

- (a) disability benefits;
- (b) death benefits in excess of those provided in section 56;
- (c) bridging benefits;
- (d) supplemental benefits, other than bridging benefits, payable for a temporary period of time;
- (e) early retirement options and benefits in excess of those provided by section 49;

	(f) postponed retirement options and benefits in excess of those referred to in subsection 43(4);
	(g) any other prescribed ancillary benefit.
Use in calculating pension benefit	(2) An ancillary benefit for which a member has met all eligibility requirements under the pension plan necessary to exercise the right to receive payment of the benefit shall be included in calculating the member's pension benefit or the commuted value of the pension benefit.
Consent of employer	(3) For the purpose of subsection (2) and clause 20(1)(c), where the consent of an employer is an eligibility requirement for entitlement to receive an ancillary benefit and a member or former member has met all other eligibility requirements, the employer is deemed to have given the consent to the member or former member.
Early retirement option for former member	49. (1) A former member of a pension plan is entitled to elect to receive an early retirement pension under the pension plan if the former member <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) terminated employment with the employer on or after the operative date; (b) is entitled to a deferred pension pursuant to this Act; and (c) is within ten years of attaining the normal retirement date.
Idem	(2) A member who is within ten years of attaining the normal retirement date and who would be entitled to a deferred pension on termination of employment is entitled upon termination of the employment or on the wind up of the pension plan in whole or in part to elect to receive an early retirement pension under the pension plan.
Commutated value	(3) The commuted value of a member's early retirement pension shall not be less than the commuted value of the member's pension benefit under the pension plan.
Idem , former member	(4) The commuted value of a former member's early retirement pension shall not be less than the commuted value of the former member's deferred pension benefit under the pension plan.
Payment	(5) The member or former member is entitled to require the commencement of payment of the early retirement pension at any time within the ten-year period mentioned in subsection (1) or (2).
Election	(6) An election pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) shall be made in writing, signed by the member or former member, and delivered to the administrator of the pension plan.
Transfer	50. (1) A former member of a pension plan who, on or after the operative date, terminates employment or ceases to be a member of the pension plan and who is entitled to a deferred pension is entitled to require the administrator to pay an amount equal to the commuted value of the deferred pension

- (a) to the pension fund related to another pension plan, if the administrator of the other pension plan agrees to accept the payment;
- (b) into a prescribed retirement savings arrangement; or
- (c) for the purchase for the former member of a life annuity under which payments will not commence before the earliest date on which the former member would have been entitled to receive payment of pension benefits under the pension plan.

(2) Where the amount of the commuted value of the deferred pension of the former member to be paid into a prescribed retirement savings arrangement pursuant to clause (1)(b) is greater than the amount prescribed for such a transfer under the Income Tax Act (Canada), the administrator shall pay the portion that exceeds the prescribed amount as a lump sum to the former member.

Lump sum

(3) The entitlement under subsection (1) is subject to the prescribed limitations in respect of the transfer of funds from pension funds.

Limitation

(4) Subsection (1) does not apply to a member whose employment is terminated and who is entitled to immediate payment of a pension benefit under the pension plan or under section 49, unless the pension plan provides such an entitlement.

Application of subsection (1)

(5) A former member may exercise an entitlement pursuant to subsection (1) by delivering to the administrator within the prescribed period of time a direction in a form supplied by the Superintendent.

Direction

(6) Subject to compliance with the requirements of this section and the regulations, the administrator shall comply with the direction within the prescribed period of time after delivery of the direction.

Compliance with direction

- (7) The administrator shall not make payment
- (a) under clause (1)(b) unless the retirement savings arrangement meets the prescribed requirements; or
 - (b) under clause (1)(c) unless the contract to purchase the deferred life annuity meets the prescribed requirements.

Payment, terms of arrangement or deferred annuity

(8) Where a payment under subsection (1) does not meet the limitations prescribed in relation to transfers of funds from pension funds, the administrator shall not make the payment without the approval of the Superintendent.

Approval of Superintendent

(9) The Superintendent may approve the payment subject to such terms and conditions as the Superintendent considers appropriate in the circumstances.

Terms and conditions

Order for repayment	(10) Where a payment that does not meet the limitations prescribed in relation to transfers of funds from pension funds is made without the approval of the Superintendent or there is failure to comply with a term or condition attached to the approval, the Superintendent may, subject to section 90, by order require any person to whom payment under subsection (1) has been made to repay an amount not greater than the amount of the payment together with interest thereon.
Enforcement of repayment order	(11) Subject to section 90, an order for payment under subsection (10), exclusive of the reasons therefor, may be filed in the Supreme Court and is thereupon enforceable as an order of that court.
Discharge of administrator	(12) The administrator is discharged on making the payment or transfer in accordance with the direction of the former member if the payment or transfer complies with this Act and the regulations.
Purchase of pension from insurance company	51. (1) The administrator of a pension plan who is required by the pension plan to provide a pension, a deferred pension or an ancillary benefit may purchase the pension, deferred pension or ancillary benefit from an insurance company.
Limitations	(2) The authority of the administrator pursuant to subsection (1) is subject to the entitlement of a member under section 50 and to the limitations prescribed in relation to transfers of funds from pension funds.
Approval of Superintendent	(3) Where a purchase pursuant to subsection (1) does not meet the limitations prescribed in relation to transfers of funds from pension funds, the administrator shall not make the purchase without the prior approval of the Superintendent.
Idem	(4) The Superintendent may approve a purchase mentioned in subsection (3) subject to such terms and conditions as the Superintendent considers appropriate in the circumstances.
Order for repayment	(5) Where a purchase that does not meet the limitations prescribed in relation to transfers of funds from pension funds is made without the approval of the Superintendent or there is a failure to comply with a term or condition attached to the approval, the Superintendent may, subject to section 90, by order require any person to whom payment under subsection (1) has been made to repay an amount not greater than the amount of the payment together with interest thereon.
Enforcement of repayment order	(6) Subject to section 90, an order for payment pursuant to subsection (5), exclusive of the reasons therefor, may be filed in the Supreme Court and is thereupon enforceable as an order of that court.

52. (1) Every pension paid under a pension plan to a former member who has a spouse on the date that the payment of the first instalment of the pension is due shall be a joint and survivor pension.

Joint and survivor pension

(2) The commuted value of a joint and survivor pension under subsection (1) shall not be less than the commuted value of the pension that would be payable under the pension plan to the former member.

Commuted value

(3) The amount of the pension payable to the survivor of the former member and the spouse of the former member shall not be less than 60 per cent of the pension paid to the former member during the joint lives of the former member and the former member's spouse.

Amount of survivor benefit

(4) Subsections (1) to (3) do not apply in respect of
 (a) a pension benefit if payment of the pension has commenced before the operative date; or
 (b) a former member who is living separate and apart from the spouse on the date that payment of the first instalment of the pension is due.

Application of subsections (1) to (3)

53. (1) Before commencing payment of a pension or pension benefit, the administrator of a pension plan shall require the person entitled to the payment to provide to the administrator the information needed to calculate and pay the pension or pension benefit.

Information for administrator

(2) The person entitled to the payment shall provide the information to the administrator.

Person to provide information

(3) In the absence of actual notice to the contrary, the administrator is discharged on paying the pension or pension benefit in accordance with the information provided by the person in accordance with subsection (2) or, if the person does not provide the information, in accordance with the latest information in the records of the administrator.

Discharge of administrator

54. (1) The persons entitled to a joint and survivor pension benefit may waive the entitlement to receive payment of pension benefits in the form of a joint and survivor pension by delivering to the administrator of the pension plan or, in the case of a deferred life annuity, to the insurance company, a written waiver in the prescribed form that shall be supplied by the Superintendent.

Waiver of entitlement

(2) The waiver is not effective unless it is delivered to the administrator or the insurance company, as the case may be, within the period of 12 months immediately preceding the commencement of payment of the pension benefit.

Time for delivery of waiver

(3) Persons who have delivered a waiver pursuant to subsection (1) may jointly cancel the waiver by delivering a written and signed notice

Cancellation of waiver of cancellation to the administrator or the insurance company, as the case may be, before commencement of payment of the pension benefit.

Surviving spouse's
new spousal relationship

55. (1) The spouse of a deceased former member of a pension plan who is receiving a pension under the pension plan is not disentitled to payment of the pension by reason only of becoming the spouse of another person after the death of the former member.

Application of
subsection (1)

(2) Subsection (1) applies in respect of pensions that are being paid on the operative date, or that commence to be paid on or after the operative date.

Pre-retirement death
benefit for spouse

56. (1) Where a person entitled under a pension plan to a deferred pension benefit described in section 44 dies before the payment of the deferred pension has commenced, the person's spouse at the date of death is entitled to receive payment of not less than 60 per cent of the commuted value of the deferred pension.

Idem

(2) Where the person dies while employed by the employer, entitlement to a deferred pension and the payment of not less than 60 per cent of the commuted value of the deferred pension shall be calculated as if the person's employment were terminated immediately before the person's death.

Application of subsections (1) and

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply where the terms of employment of the deceased person provide for payment of a group life insurance benefit of not less than 60 per cent of the commuted value of the deferred pension.

Election

(4) Where the person does not have a spouse or where subsection (3) applies or where the person is living separate and apart from the person's spouse and a division of the deferred pension has been made under section 61, the person's beneficiary or estate is entitled to receive a refund of that person's contributions with interest as prescribed.

Application of subsections (1) to (4)

(5) Subsections (1) to (4) apply only in respect of contributions made and pension benefits accrued on or after the operative date.

Variation of payment to disabled person

57. A pension plan may permit variation in the terms of payment of a pension or deferred pension by reason of the mental or physical disability of a member or former member that is likely to considerably shorten the life expectancy of the member or former member.

Payment of commuted value if benefit small

58. A pension plan may provide for payment to a former member of the commuted value of a benefit if the annual benefit payable at the normal retirement date is not more than four per cent of the year's maximum pensionable earnings in the year that the former member terminated employment or if the commuted value of a benefit is less than ten per cent of the year's maximum pensionable earnings in the year that the former member terminated employment.

59. (1) The administrator of a pension plan shall not take into account the sex of a member, former member or other beneficiary of the pension plan in

Sex of member or other beneficiary not to be a consideration

- (a) determining under the pension plan the amount of contributions required to be made by a member of the plan;
- (b) determining under the pension plan the pension benefits or the commuted value of pension benefits that a member, former member or other beneficiary is or may become entitled to;
- (c) the provision under the pension plan of eligibility conditions; or
- (d) the provision under the pension plan of ancillary benefits.

(2) An administrator of a pension plan may, in order to comply with subsection (1),

Administration

- (a) use annuity factors that do not differentiate as to sex;
- (b) provide for employer contributions that vary according to the sex of the employee; and
- (c) use any prescribed method of calculation or valuation.

(3) This section applies in respect of contributions, benefits and conditions in relation to

Application of section

- (a) employment on or after the operative date;
- (b) employment before the operative date, in so far as it is dealt with in an amendment made to the pension plan on or after that day; and
- (c) employment before the operative date, in so far as it is dealt with in a pension plan established on or after that day.

60. (1) The reduction of a pension benefit that may be required by a pension plan in relation to payment under the Canada Pension Plan, the Quebec Pension Plan or the Old Age Security Act (Canada) shall not exceed the reduction calculated in accordance with the prescribed formula applied in the prescribed manner.

Maximum reduction for C.P.P., Q.P.P. and Old Age Security Act (Canada)

(2) The amount of a reduction in a pension benefit required under a pension plan in relation to the payments mentioned in subsection (1) shall not be increased by reason of an increase in the amount of any of the other payments after the date of the member's termination of employment.

Idem

(3) A pension plan for which an application for registration is made on or after the operative date shall not permit the reduction of a pension or a deferred pension based on a person's entitlement under the Old Age Security Act (Canada).

Reduction re Old Age Security Act (Canada)

(4) A pension plan shall not permit the reduction of a pension or deferred pension based on a person's entitlement under the Old Age

Reduction

Security Act (Canada) in respect of a benefit accrued on or after the operative date.

Bridging benefit,
reduction

(5) The value of a bridging benefit, for receipt of which a member or former member has satisfied all eligibility requirements of the pension plan before the operative date, shall not be reduced by reason only of the eligibility of the member or former member to receive a payment before reaching sixty-five years of age under the Canada Pension Plan, the Quebec Pension Plan or the Old Age Security Act (Canada).

Idem

(6) Where a pension plan provides a bridging benefit without reference to a specific age at which payment of the bridging benefit is to be reduced or to cease, the pension plan is deemed to provide that the bridging benefit shall be reduced or cease to be paid when the recipient of the bridging benefit reaches sixty-five years of age.

Application of
subsection (6)

(7) Subsection (6) ceases to apply to a pension plan that is amended on or after the operative date to establish a specific age for the purpose of determining when a bridging benefit shall be reduced or cease to be paid.

Deemed age of recipient at which variation is to occur

(8) Where a pension plan provides for variation of a pension benefit by reason of a benefit payable under the Canada Pension Plan, the Quebec Pension Plan or the Old Age Security Act (Canada) without specifically stating the age at which the variation is to occur, the pension plan is deemed to provide that the variation is to occur when the recipient of the pension benefit reaches sixty-five years of age.

Application of
subsection (9)

(9) Subsection (8) ceases to apply to a pension plan that is amended on or after the operative date to specifically state the age at which variation of a pension benefit is to occur.

Pension or pension benefit

61. (1) Where a member or former member is entitled to a pension or a pension benefit and

- (a) a petition for divorce is filed;
- (b) an application is filed for a declaration of nullity; or
- (c) the member or former member and that person's spouse have been living separate and apart and there is no reasonable prospect of the resumption of cohabitation, the pension or pension benefit earned during the marriage or the period when they were spouses may be divided in accordance with the regulations between the member or former member and that person's spouse by an order of the Supreme Court or in such other manner as is prescribed in the regulations.

Right to withdraw money from locked-in retirement account not to be considered

72. (1) Notwithstanding any enactment, for the purpose of enforcement of a maintenance order as defined in the Maintenance Enforcement Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. M-1,

Enforcement of maintenance order

(a) money payable under a pension plan to a former member or a person as a result of a division under section 61 or payable from a prescribed retirement savings arrangement or life annuity that results from a purchase or transfer under section 50, 51 or 56 or subsection 79(2) is subject to a garnishment pursuant to the Maintenance

Enforcement Act and the prescribed requirements under that Act respecting garnishment;

(b) a deferred pension or pension benefit of a former member or of a person that results from a division under section 61 or a deferred life annuity or prescribed retirement savings arrangement of a person that results from a purchase or transfer under section 50, 51 or 56 or subsection 79(2) is subject to attachment by the Director of Maintenance Enforcement in accordance with the Maintenance Enforcement Act and the prescribed requirements under that Act respecting attachment of a pension entitlement.

Deduction where amount attached under subsection (1)

(2) Where an amount has been attached by the Director of Maintenance Enforcement as described in clause (1)(b), the administrator shall deduct from the commuted value of the deferred pension, pension benefit or the deferred life annuity or from the money transferred to a prescribed retirement savings arrangement,

(a) the cost of complying with the attachment calculated in the prescribed manner;

(b) the total amount of taxes, if any, that are required to be deducted or withheld as a result of the attachment; and

(c) the lesser of

(i) the amount attached, and

(ii) the remainder of the commuted value of the deferred pension, pension benefit or deferred life annuity or the remainder of the money transferred to a prescribed retirement savings arrangement.

Effect of attached on entitlement to pension or benefit

(3) Where an amount has been attached as described in clause (1)(b) of subsection (1),

(a) the person whose entitlement has been attached has no further claim or entitlement to any pension or benefit respecting the amount attached;

(b) the entitlement of a person after the person's entitlement has been attached is calculated on the basis of the commuted value of the person's deferred pension, pension benefit or deferred life annuity after the deduction of the amounts referred to in subsection (2) or the entitlement is the remainder of the money in the prescribed retirement savings arrangement after the deduction of the amounts referred to in subsection (2); and

(c) neither the administrator nor the plan is liable to any person by reason of having made payment pursuant to an attachment referred to in clause (1)(b).

Prohibition on commutation and surrender

73. (1) A pension, deferred pension, pension benefit, annuity or prescribed retirement savings arrangement that results from a purchase or transfer pursuant to section 50, 51 or 56 or subsection 79(2) to which a person is entitled is not capable of being commuted or surrendered during the person's life.

(2) A transaction that purports to commute or surrender, in whole or in part, a pension, deferred pension, pension benefit, annuity or prescribed retirement savings arrangement referred to in subsection (1) is void. Void transactions

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to a variation of a pension or deferred pension under section 57 or to a commutation of a benefit under section 58. Application of subsection (1) and (2)

(4) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to the commutation or surrender, in whole or in part, of a prescribed retirement savings arrangement in such circumstances or in such amounts as may be prescribed, subject to such restrictions as may be prescribed. Idem

WINDING UP

74. (1) An employer or, in the case of a multi-employer pension plan, the administrator may wind up the pension plan in whole or in part. Wind up of plan

(2) The administrator of a pension plan shall, before the wind up of the pension plan is commenced, give written notice of the proposed wind up to Notice of wind up

- (a) the Superintendent;
- (b) each member who is affected;
- (c) each former member who is affected;
- (d) each trade union that represents members;
- (e) the advisory committee of the pension plan; and
- (f) any other person entitled to a payment from the pension fund who is affected.

(3) In the case of a proposal to wind up only part of a pension plan, the administrator of the pension plan is not required to give written notice of the proposed partial wind up to members, former members or other persons entitled to payment from the pension fund if those persons will not be affected by the proposed partial windup. Idem

(4) The notice of wind up shall contain the information prescribed. Idem

(5) A multi-employer pension plan shall not be wound up by reason only of the withdrawal of a participating employer from the pension plan but the Superintendent may, by order, require the wind up if the Superintendent is of the opinion that in the circumstances the pension plan ought to be wound up. Multi-employer pension plan

(6) The effective date of the wind up of a pension plan shall not be earlier than the date member contributions under the pension plan, if any, Effective date of wind up cease to be deducted, in the case of contributory pension benefits or, in any other case, the date notice of the wind up is given to members of the pension plan.

Idem

(7) The Superintendent may, by order, change the effective date of the wind up of a pension plan if the Superintendent is of the opinion that there are reasonable grounds for the change.

Order to wind up

75. (1) The Superintendent may, by order, require the wind up of a pension plan in whole or in part if

- (a) there is a cessation or suspension of employer contributions to the pension fund except where payments are being made from surplus funds;
- (b) the employer fails to make contributions to the pension fund as required by this Act or the regulations;
- (c) the employer is bankrupt within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Act (Canada);
- (d) a significant number of the members cease to be employed by the employer as a result of the discontinuance of all or part of the business of the employer or as a result of the reorganization of the business of the employer;
- (e) all or a significant portion of the business carried on by the employer at a specific location is discontinued;
- (f) all or part of the employer's business or all or part of the assets of the employer's business are sold, assigned or otherwise disposed of and the person who acquired the business or assets does not provide a pension plan for the members of the employer's pension plan who become employees of the person; or
- (g) in the case of a multi-employer pension plan,
 - (i) there is a significant reduction in the number of members, or
 - (ii) there is a cessation of contributions under the pension plan or a significant reduction in such contributions; or
- (h) any prescribed event or prescribed circumstance occurs.

Idem

(2) In an order made under subsection (1), the Superintendent shall specify the effective date of the wind up, the persons or classes of persons to whom the administrator shall give notice of the order and the information that shall be given in the notice.

Wind-up report

76. (1) The administrator of a pension plan that is to be wound up in whole or in part shall file a wind-up report that sets out

- (a) the assets and liabilities of the pension plan;
- (b) the benefits to be provided under the pension plan to members, former members and other persons;
- (c) the methods of allocating and distributing the assets of the pension plan and determining the priorities for payment of benefits; and

(d) such other information as is prescribed.

(2) An administrator of a pension plan shall not make any payment out of its pension fund after a notice of proposal to wind up the pension plan has been given in accordance with section 74 until the Superintendent has approved the wind-up report that is filed in respect of the wind up.

Approval of report before payments made

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to prevent the continued payment of any pension or benefit that commenced before the giving of the notice of the wind up of the pension plan or to prevent any payment that is prescribed or that is approved by the Superintendent.

Application of subsection (2)

(4) After a wind-up report in respect of a pension plan has been approved by the Superintendent, the administrator of the pension plan shall not make payment out of the pension fund except in accordance with the approved wind-up report.

Payments to be made in accordance with approved report

(5) The Superintendent may refuse to approve a wind-up report that does not meet the requirements of this Act and the regulations or that does not protect the interests of the members and former members of the pension plan that is the subject of the wind-up report.

Refusal to approve wind-up report

(6) On the partial wind up of a pension plan, members, former members and other persons entitled to benefits under the pension plan shall have rights and benefits that are not less than the rights and benefits they would have on a full wind up of the pension plan on the effective date of the partial wind up.

Rights and benefits on partial wind up

77. (1) Where a pension plan that is to be wound up in whole or in part does not have an administrator or the administrator fails to act, the Superintendent may act as or may appoint an administrator.

Replacement of administrator on wind up

(2) The Superintendent may terminate the appointment of an administrator appointed by the Superintendent under subsection (1) if the Superintendent considers it reasonable to do so.

Termination of appointment of administrator

(3) The reasonable administration costs of the Superintendent or of the administrator appointed by the Superintendent shall be paid out of the pension fund.

Administration costs, payment out of pension fund

78. (1) Within the prescribed period of time, the administrator of a pension plan that is to be wound up, in whole or in part, shall give to each person entitled to a pension, deferred pension or other benefit, or to a refund, under the pension plan a statement setting out the amount of the person's entitlement under the pension plan, the options available to the person and such other information as may be prescribed.

Statement of entitlement on wind up

Election	(2) Where a person to whom notice is given pursuant to subsection (1) is required to make an election, the person shall make the election within the prescribed period of time or shall be deemed to have elected to receive immediate payment of a pension benefit, if eligible therefor, or, if not eligible to receive immediate payment of a pension benefit, to receive a pension commencing at the earliest date mentioned in clause 80(1)(b).
Payment	(3) Within the prescribed period of time, the administrator shall make payment in accordance with the election or deemed election.
Determination of amount of benefits on wind up	79. (1) For the purpose of determining the amounts of pension benefits on the winding up of a pension plan, in whole or in part, (a) the employment of each member of the pension plan affected by the winding up shall be deemed to have been terminated on the effective date of the winding up; (b) each member's pension benefits as of the effective date of the wind up shall be determined as if the member had satisfied all eligibility conditions for a deferred pension; and (c) provision shall be made for the rights pursuant to section 88.
Rights of person entitled to a pension benefit	(2) A person entitled to a pension benefit on the wind up of a pension plan, other than a person who is receiving a pension, is entitled to the rights under subsection 50(1) of a member who terminates employment and for that purpose subsection 50(4) does not apply.
Pension rights of member on wind up	80. (1) A member of a pension plan whose combination of age plus years of employment or membership in the pension plan equals at least fifty-five, at the effective date of the wind up of the pension plan, in whole or in part, has the right to receive (a) a pension in accordance with the terms of the pension plan if, under the pension plan, the member is eligible for immediate payment of the pension benefit; (b) a pension in accordance with the terms of the pension plan, beginning at the earlier of (i) the normal retirement date under the pension plan, and (ii) the date on which the member would be entitled to an unreduced pension under the pension plan if the pension plan were not wound up and if the member's membership continued to that date; or (c) a reduced pension beginning on the date on which the member would be entitled to the reduced pension under the pension plan if the pension plan were not wound up and if the member's membership continued to that date.
Credit for each month of age and employment or membership	(2) In determining for the purposes of subsection (1) the combination of age plus employment or membership of a member of a pension plan on its effective date of wind up, one-twelfth credit shall be given for each month of age and for each month of employment or membership.

(3) Bridging benefits offered under the pension plan to which a member would be entitled if the pension plan were not wound up and if the membership of the member were continued shall be included in calculating the pension benefit under subsection (1) of a person who has at least ten years of continuous employment with the employer or has been a member of the pension plan for at least ten years.

Inclusion of bridging benefits

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), where the bridging benefit offered under the pension plan is not related to period of employment or membership in the pension plan, the bridging benefit shall be prorated by the ratio that the member's actual period of employment bears to the period of employment that the member would have to the earliest date on which the member would be entitled to an unreduced pension under the pension plan if the pension plan were not wound up.

Idem

(5) Membership in a pension plan that is wound up, in whole or in part, includes the period of notice of termination of employment required under the Employment Standards Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. E-6.2.

Inclusion of period of notice of termination

(6) Subsection (5) does not apply for the purpose of calculating the amount of a pension benefit of a member who is required to make contributions to the pension fund unless the member makes the contributions in respect of the period of notice of termination of employment.

Application of subsection (5)

(7) For the purpose of this section, where the consent of an employer is an eligibility requirement for entitlement to receive an ancillary benefit, the employer is deemed to have given the consent.

Deemed consent of employer

(8) This section and section 79 apply in respect of the wind up, in whole or in part, of a pension plan where the effective date of the windup is on or after the coming into force of this subsection.

Application of this section and section 79

(9) A person affected by a wind up who elects to receive a benefit under subsection (1) is not entitled to payment of any refund of contributions under subsection 68(3) or (4).

Refunds

(10) This section does not apply in respect of a multi-employer pension plan.

Application of this section to multi-employer pension plan

81. (1) Where a pension plan is wound up in whole or in part, the employer shall pay into the pension fund an amount equal to the total of all payments that, pursuant to this Act, the regulations and the pension

Employer's payments on wind up plan, are due or have accrued and that have not been paid into the pension fund.

Idem

(2) Where, on the wind up of a pension plan in whole or in part, other than a multi-employer pension plan, the assets in the pension fund are less than the value of the benefits provided under the plan and under section 80, the employer shall make such payments into the pension fund of the amount necessary to fund the benefits provided under the plan and under section 80.

Idem

(3) The employer shall pay the monies due under subsections (1) and (2) in the prescribed manner and at the prescribed time.

Application of Act after wind up

82. The pension fund of a pension plan that is wound up continues to be subject to this Act and the regulations until the employer satisfies its obligations under section 81 and all the assets of the pension fund have been disbursed.

Reduction of benefits

83. Where the money in a pension fund is not sufficient to pay all the pension benefits and other benefits on the wind up of the pension plan, in whole or in part, the pension benefits and other benefits shall be distributed and, if appropriate, reduced in the prescribed manner.

SURPLUS

Consent of Superintendent to pay surplus

84. (1) No money that is surplus shall be paid out of a pension fund of a pension plan to the employer without the prior consent of the Superintendent.

Application for consent

(2) An employer who applies to the Superintendent for consent to payment of money to the employer out of the surplus of a pension fund of a pension plan shall transmit notice of the application, containing the prescribed information, to

- (a) each member and each former member;
- (b) each trade union that represents members; and
- (c) any individual who is receiving payments out of the pension fund.

Representations respecting an application for consent

(3) A person to whom notice has been transmitted pursuant to subsection (2) may make written representation to the Superintendent with respect to the application within thirty days after receiving the notice.

Conditions for consent to payment out of surplus

85. (1) The Superintendent shall not consent to payment of money to the employer out of a continuing pension plan unless

- (a) the Superintendent is satisfied, based on reports provided with the application, that the pension plan has a surplus;

- (b) the pension plan provides for the withdrawal of surplus by the employer while the pension plan continues in existence, or the applicant satisfies the Superintendent that the applicant is otherwise entitled to withdraw the surplus;
- (c) where all pension benefits under the pension plan are guaranteed by an insurance company, an amount equal to at least two years of the employer's current service costs is retained in the pension fund as surplus;
- (d) where the members are not required to make contributions under the pension plan, the greater of
 - (i) an amount equal to two years of the employer's current service costs, and
 - (ii) an amount equal to twenty-five per cent of the liabilities of the pension plan calculated as prescribed, is retained in the pension fund as surplus;
- (e) where members are required to make contributions under the pension plan, all surpluses attributable to contributions paid by members and the greater of
 - (i) an amount equal to two years of the employer's current service costs, and
 - (ii) an amount equal to twenty-five per cent of the liabilities of the pension plan calculated as prescribed, are retained in the pension fund as surplus; and
- (f) the applicant and the pension plan comply with all other requirements prescribed pursuant to other sections of this Act in respect of the payment of surplus money out of a pension fund.

(2) On and after the date that is two years after the operative date, a pension plan that does not provide for the withdrawal of surplus money while the pension plan continues in existence shall be construed to prohibit the withdrawal of surplus money accrued on or after the operative date. Deemed prohibition of withdrawal

(3) The Superintendent shall not consent to an application in respect of a pension plan that is being wound up, in whole or in part, unless Consent of Superintendent

- (a) the Superintendent is satisfied, based on reports provided with the application, that the pension plan has a surplus;
- (b) the pension plan provides for payment of the surplus to the employer on the wind up or the employer has a claim to the surplus or part of the surplus;
- (c) all liabilities of the pension plan, calculated for the purpose of the termination of the pension plan, have been paid; and
- (d) the applicant and the pension plan comply with all other requirements prescribed pursuant to other sections of this Act in respect of the payment of surplus money out of a pension fund.

Employer's claim to surplus	(4) An employer has a claim to the surplus or a part of the surplus if, after being notified of the employer's proposal, containing the prescribed information, for a refund of that surplus or part of it, at least two thirds of the persons in each of the following categories notify the employer that they consent to the proposal: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) members of the pension plan; (b) former members of the plan; (c) other persons within a prescribed class.
Surplus to be distributed proportionally	(5) On and after the date that is two years after the operative date, a pension plan that does not provide for payment of surplus money on the wind up shall be construed to require that surplus money accrued on or after the operative date, be distributed proportionately on the wind up among members, former members and any other persons entitled to payments under the pension plan on the date of the wind up.
Decision of Superintendent, transmission	(6) The Superintendent shall issue a decision on an application made in accordance with subsection 84(2) and shall transmit a copy of that decision together with written reasons therefor, to the applicant and to each person who made a written representation to the Superintendent in accordance with subsection 84(3).
Conditions attached to consent	(7) The Superintendent may attach such conditions and limitations to any consent given by the Superintendent under this section as the Superintendent considers necessary in the circumstances.
"successor employer" defined	86. (1) In this section, "successor employer" means the person who acquires the business or the assets of an employer.
Sale or disposition by employer of business or assets, effect	(2) Where an employer who contributes to a pension plan sells, assigns or otherwise disposes of all or part of the employer's business or all or part of the assets of the employer's business, a member of the pension plan, who in conjunction with the sale, assignment or disposition becomes an employee of the successor employer and becomes a member of a pension plan provided by the successor employer, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) continues to be entitled to the benefits provided under the employer's pension plan in respect of employment in the province or a designated province to the effective date of the sale, assignment or disposition without further accrual; (b) is entitled to credit in the pension plan of the successor employer for the period of membership in the employer's pension plan, for the purpose of determining eligibility for membership in or entitlement to benefits under the pension plan of the successor employer; and (c) is entitled to credit in the employer's pension plan for the period of employment with the successor employer for the purpose of determining entitlement to benefits under the employer's pension plan.

(3) Clause (2)(a) does not apply if the successor employer assumes responsibility for the accrued pension benefits of the employer's pension plan and no wind up shall be deemed to have occurred.

Application of clause (2)(a)

(4) Where a transaction described in subsection (2) takes place, the employment of the employee shall be deemed, for the purpose of this Act, not to be terminated by reason of the transaction.

Effect of transaction described in subsection (2)

(5) Where a transaction described in subsection (2) occurs and the successor employer assumes responsibility, in whole or in part, for the pension benefits provided under the employer's pension plan, no transfer of assets shall be made from the employer's pension fund to the pension fund of the plan provided by the successor employer without the prior consent of the Superintendent or contrary to the prescribed terms and conditions.

Consent of Superintendent to transfer of assets

(6) The Superintendent shall refuse to consent to a transfer of assets that does not protect the pension benefits and any other benefits of the members and former members of the employer's pension plan or that does not meet the prescribed requirements and qualifications.

Refusal of consent

(7) The Superintendent may, by order, require the transferee to return to the pension fund, with interest, assets transferred without the prior consent required by subsection (5).

Order to return
assets

(8) Where a group of members of a multi-employer pension plan are represented by a trade union and, in accordance with the Labour Act, the trade union ceases to represent the members and the members become represented by a different trade union certified as their bargaining agent and become members of a different pension plan, the administrator of the first plan shall transfer to the administrator of the new pension plan all the assets and liabilities respecting those members who have elected pursuant to section 50 to transfer their entitlement to the new pension plan and the administrator of the new pension plan shall accept the transfer as assets and liabilities of the new plan.

Transfer of assets
and liabilities
between plans

(9) Where a group of members of a multi-employer pension plan are represented by a trade union and, in accordance with the Labour Act, the trade union ceases to represent the members and former members and they become represented by a different trade union certified as their bargaining agent and become members of a different pension plan and the members are not entitled to make an election pursuant to section 50, the administrator of the old pension plan shall transfer to the administrator of the new pension plan all assets and liabilities of the pension plan attributable to the members determined as prescribed and the administrator of the new pension plan shall accept the assets and liabilities as assets and liabilities, determined as prescribed, of the new plan.

Application of subsections (8) and (9)	(10) Subsections (8) and (9) do not apply where there is a reciprocal agreement respecting the pension plans.
Filing of order for return of assets	(11) Subject to section 90, an order of the Superintendent made under subsection (7) for the return of assets to a pension fund, exclusive of the reasons therefor, may be filed in the Supreme Court and is thereupon enforceable as an order of the Court.
Establishment of new pension plan	87. (1) Where a pension plan is established by an employer to be a successor to an existing pension plan and the employer ceases to make contributions to the original pension plan, the original pension plan is deemed not to be wound up and the new pension plan is deemed to be a continuation of the original pension plan.
Benefits of original plan deemed benefits of new plan	(2) The benefits under the original pension plan in respect of employment before the establishment of the new pension plan are deemed to be benefits under the new pension plan.
Application of subsection (2)	(3) Subsection (2) applies whether or not the assets and liabilities of the original pension plan are consolidated with those of the new pension plan.
No transfer of assets without consent	(4) No transfer of assets shall be made from the pension fund of the original pension plan to the pension fund of the new pension plan without the prior consent of the Superintendent or contrary to the prescribed terms and conditions.
Refusal of consent	(5) The Superintendent shall refuse to consent to a transfer of assets that does not protect the pension benefits and any other benefits of the members and former members of the original pension plan or that does not meet the prescribed requirements and qualifications.
Order for return of assets	(6) The Superintendent by order may require the transferee to return to the pension fund assets, with interest calculated in the prescribed manner, transferred without the prior consent of the Superintendent or transferred contrary to a prescribed term or condition.
Filing of order for return of assets	(7) Subject to section 90, an order of the Superintendent made under subsection (6) for the return of assets to a pension fund, exclusive of the reasons therefor, may be filed in the Supreme Court and is thereupon enforceable as an order of the Court.
No transfer of assets without consent	(8) No transfer of assets shall be made from one pension fund to another pension fund in circumstances where subsections (1) to (7) do not apply or where sections 51 or 86 do not apply, without the prior consent of the Superintendent or contrary to the prescribed terms and conditions and, for that purpose, subsections (5) to (7) apply with such changes as are necessary.

ORDERS

88. (1) The Superintendent, in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (2) and subject to section 90, by a written order may require an administrator or any person to take or to refrain from taking any action in respect of a pension plan or a pension fund. Order of Superintendent

(2) The Superintendent may make an order pursuant to this section if the Superintendent is of the opinion, upon reasonable and probable grounds, that Idem

- (a) the pension plan or pension fund is not being administered in accordance with this Act, the regulations or the pension plan;
- (b) the pension plan does not comply with this Act and the regulations; or
