

Public Education Outreach 2011 & 2012

The public education system demonstrates respect and support for fundamental human rights as identified in the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and the P.E.I. Human Rights Act... Respect and support for fundamental human rights require application of the provisions of the Charter and the Human Rights Act and promotion of the principles they embody by example and through the programs and materials used in schools.

(PEI DEECD, Basic Principles, 2009)

The PEI Human Rights Commission shall ... develop a program of public information and education in the field of human rights to forward the principle that every person is free and equal in dignity and rights without regard to age, colour, creed, ethnic or national origin, family status, marital status, disability, political belief, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation or source of income;

(PEI Human Rights Act, 1976, p. 9)

In order to realize these interconnected mandates, the DEECD collaborated* with the PEI Human Rights Commission to produce the following human rights-related resources for PEI teachers:

2011 Empowering Connections: SCOs and the PEI Human Rights Act

DEECD Curriculum Specialists recommend Specific Curriculum Objectives (SCOs) in selected subjects that will enable students to gain the knowledge, skills and attitudes necessary to demonstrate respect and support for fundamental human rights.
